Charles Arthur Younkin aka "Charleroi Charley" from Charleroi, PA, was secretary of the Younkin Family Association that organized the Younkin Family Reunion from 1934 through 1941. From 1937 through 1941, Charles published eight (8) issues of the Younkin Family News Bulletin and distributed the bulletins to families across America. Inspired by Charles' publications and the work of the Younkin Family Association, from 1990 to 1996, Donna Christine (Younkin) Logan started new family reunions and published her and Charles' genealogy research findings in 25 new issues of the Younkin Family News Bulletin. In 2004 and 2005, Donna published two (2) more issues titled Junghen Family News Bulletin with the results of genealogy research in the ancestral village of Niederasphe, Hessen, Germany. The news bulletins, widely distributed by U.S. Mail, have a treasure trove of genealogy and history on the Junghen-Younkin family.

Donna, age 55, succumbed to cancer on January 4, 2006. Her husband Larry Logan and her family requested the research findings and bulletins be widely accessible so that future generations of Junghen-Younkin descendants can learn from her work. In 2008-2009, the late Ross Younkin scanned the bulletins into PDF files and made a limited number of compact discs (CD). The Younkin Family Reunion distributed the CDs for several years. By 2017, Mark T. Youngkin could not find a CD or PDF files, and he scanned the news bulletins to new PDF files and posted them to the Internet Archive. In early 2025, Youngkin created a table of contents and index of surnames for each bulletin volume to make genealogy information more accessible for research. Youngkin combined each volume of news bulletins into one PDF file for distribution and archiving with a cover sheet, publication list, table of contents, and index of surnames.

A Tribute to Our Family

Volume 5, Number 1

January, February, March 1994

Donna Younkin Logan, publisher

Dear Cousins,

Thank you all for your continued support of our family newsletter. I hope that it has helped in some small way to let you know that you are cherished by all your cousins from near and far! Last week I opened a Chinese fortune cookie and it read: "Your Family Is One of God's Masterpieces!" That's one of the few fortunes I've had that has come true! You all will never know the joy I have felt over the past 5 years of publishing our newsletter. Each time one of you writes or calls—I am filled with happiness that I have been able to play a small part in bringing this family back together!

I am occasionally questioned as to whether all the Junghens (with all the various spellings) are really related. I don't know for sure, but what I can tell you is that upon immigration they were nearly all centered in and around Bucks and Northampton and surrounding counties. Or at least in the Eastern Pennsylvania area. How they spell their name doesn't seem to have much to do with family ties. After all Henry Jr., youngest son of Henrich and Catherine (Sharer) Junghen spelling his name Youngkin and so do all of his descendants. Whereas all four of his brothers spelled their name Younkin. Henrich Junghen's brother, Herman has descendants that spell their name Youngkin and Youngken. How it was pronounced seems to be more of a factor than how it is spelled.

Reunions Help Strengthen Family Ties Attend the Younkin Family Reunion July 22, 23, 24th 1994 in Somerset, Pennsylvania

In April everyone will receive a separate flyer with all of the reunion plans, and a reservation form. If you are planning to attend and would like to stay at the Ramada Inn (where the reunion is headquartered) in Somerset, Pa., please call early for your reservations! Last year there were not enough rooms. So if we reserve them early, we'll have enough. I have 40 rooms reserved, but 30 days before the reunion, I have to release the hold on the rooms not taken. You can cancel your reservations anytime before checkin! So, even if you haven't made a firm decision, make your reservations now. In order to get the Ramada's special reunion rate, you must tell them you are with the Younkin Reunion. The phone number to call is: 1-814-443-4646. (There is no "800" number).

Noteworthy News

If there is enough interest I am considering publishing a book on the families I have collected thus far. This wouldn't be anything fancy but would be more of a reference manual. (or an Encyclopedia of Junghens). There are still a number of readers for whom I have no family information, I would sure hate to exclude them. Also if you can correct or add to what I have you might want to do that soon.

Tree Trivia

The first known Christmas trees in America were those decorated for children in a German church settlement in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, on Christmas morning in 1747.

The "trees" were actually wooden pyramids covered with evergreen boughs. Candles, apples, and poetry verses decorated the boughs of these first Christmas trees.

If you could see your ancestors

If you could see your ancestors

All standing in a row,

Would you be proud of them or not,

Or don't you really know?

Some strange discoveries are made

In climbing family trees,

And some of them, you know, do not Particularly please.

If you could see your ancestors

All standing in a row,

There might be some of them, perhaps

You wouldn't care to know.

But here's another question, which Requires a different view—

If you could meet your ancestors,

Would they be proud of you?

[Please note: though, again, this history presents a Holland/Dutch ancestry. We have no evidence to support this. Every piece of early documentation we have on our family in America, offers German as our ancestry. The biggest being Henrich Junghen's stone carved in old German script. Perhaps the earliest record, that is authentic, of any Younkin to land in America is Herman or Henry Younkham, in the year 1737 from Rotterdam, Holland. There is a record of one Gideon Younkin in New York in the year 1800 who were refugees; that is they were sold for their passage. There are three or four branches and hence as many spellings of the name in the U.S.A. One German, two Holland Dutch, perhaps one Russian, and there is also a Colony of Jews who spell theirs as we do — Younkin, the name in Holland is JONGKINDT — JONKHEYN in Amsterdam, and JUNGEN in Germany. It is a known fact, that there were many Younkings that served in the Revolutionary War, from Bucks County, Penna. The will of Henry Youngken dated Jan. 18, 1787, Haycock Twp., Bucks Co., Penna., gives the names of his children as John, Jacob, Frederick, Rudolph, Henry, and daughters as Catherine and Elizabeth.

Frederick was born in Bucks Co, Penna, October 15, 1763, and died in 1843, buried in Somerset Co, as is also Jacob and perhaps John. Jacob was in the Revolutionary War. A daughter was born to Jacob and wife [Johannah "Hannah" Nicola] in Somerset Co., in 1787. [Jacob and Hannah's son, John J. Younkin was born in Somerset County, Pa, 6 Feb 1787, and was baptized 7 Mar 1787 at Keller's Lutheran Church, Somerset. Their first daughter, of record, was born in 1797 and married John Weimer.] Jacob and Frederick were taxed as single men in Bucks Co, in 1785, hence must have settled in Bucks Co., between 1785 and 1787 [we do have them in earlier records in Bucks County.].

Henry Younkin who came to Kansas in 1874 was a son of the above Frederick Younkin. He was born Feb. 8, 1805, and died June 16, 1880. He married Mary King, born Feb. 29, 1810, and she died August 7, 1903. Their children were all born in Pennsylvania.

The following was written by, Olive Younkin Neill, daughter of John Mitchell and Emma (Mall) Younkin, in 1945.

It was a bright Spring morning on the tenth of March, the year of 1877, a young man, John M. Younkin, just two days past twenty-one years of age, was riding along the trail which followed Timber Creek for a short distance and then branched off on Mall Creek.

This was a momentous day for young John, for he was going to get his sweetheart, sweet Emma Mall, a young schoolteacher and together they were going to the County seat, Clay Center, Kansas to get their license to wed, Clay County was still in the pioneer stage.

John had been brought up in the home of his parents, Moses and Lavilia Younkin, being the eldest son. It was a family of boys except one sister.

No doubt there were great plans in his mind this morning of a happy prosperous future, a home and family. As he saw trees bursting into buds, the green grass in the low places and the meadowlarks singing; just overhead a cardinal whistled his sweet song of cheer.

O, yes, it was a happy day as young John trotted up to the hitching post at the Mall home and dropped his horse's reins over it. I think I saw a young girl peeking out of the window. She was all dressed in a wine colored alpaca. It was very becomingly made with tight fitted basque, buttoned down the front, the skirt was draped with bustle effect in the back and several rows of wide pleating around the bottom of the skirt.

She shyly opened the door as he knocked and said, "Yes John, I am ready."

Emma's father Jacob Mall, a tall slender farmer, brought her horse out, John helped her to mount on the side-saddle and they rode away together. Can you imagine how they planned as they rode those ten miles to the small village of Clay Center, Kansas.

The Courthouse was just a room where the probate Judge, R. D. McCord presided. John, with a sheepish grin told him what they wanted and as he peered over his glasses at them, he saw a young man of medium height, broad shouldered with black hair and a cocky little mustache. His eyes and mouth were smiling, and the girl was slight of build, and also had black hair, clear gray eyes and a fresh complexion, a very sweet maiden, just starting out on life's journey.

The Probate Judge got a large book and said to the young man, "sign here, please," and I think John felt he was quite a man when he signed, "J. M. Younkin, age 21" and turned to the girl and said, "sign here Em" she in turn wrote her name, "Emma J. Mall, age 19 years."

"Mother and Dad" — can you see them? I can. Their names are down on the Record just as they wrote them 68 years ago.

They were married on the 12th day of March 1877 at the home of Jacob Mall by Rev. M. E. Wilder. Witness: Jacob Mall — Louisa E. Mall. It is recorded, the license was returned on the 9th of April 1877 by Rev. Wilder and filled in by him.

Pennsylvania German Gunmakers

By ROGER YONKIN

By the mid 18th century, American Colonists were supplanting guns that had previously been made in Europe and shipped to our shores, with weapons built in the colonies. The Germans were acknowledged as being the best gunmakers in the world. Some German gunsmiths had immigrated normally and others were enticed here to help build the new weapons business.

The famous "Kentucky Rifle" of story and legend, was most often, actually a "Pennsylvania Rifle" more often made by German gunsmiths, living and working in Pennsylvania.

So, my question is by now probably obvious, were any Junghens gunsmiths?

The "Pennsylvania Rifle" a caplock, or flintlock type, were considered the finest "long rifles" available, but were expensive and not used, or carried by everyone. These were "personal rifles", not the type used by the military. They were often of .45 caliber and less, used primarily in the east, but obviously emigrated themselves over the continent.

Now this is only a thumbnail sketch of history, let us know of any information you possess.

Are there any books on German gunsmiths? Do you have any history of our family being involved? Do you know of a weapon that was built by a Junghen, hopefully with his name engraved thereon?

As one of my hobbies, I have built several flintlock muzzleloading rifles, over the past 25 years. I have photos showing family members standing with the muzzleloading rifles. What happened to these rifles, powder horns, pouches, etc. If you would send me photos with descriptions/history, of any items you have, it would be deeply appreciated.

How about it cousins?! If you can help Roger in his quest for more information on German gunsmiths, please write to him at: 26 German Cross Rd, Ithaca, New York 14850-6028.

Meet Your Cousin...

June (Fritz) Kempthorne, co-publisher LIFESTORY of Manhattan, Kansas

LIFESTORY is a magazine started in December of 1991 by June Fritz Kempthorne (descended from Olive Kathryn Younkin of Clay Center, Kansas) and her husband Charley. LIFESTORY is a how-to magazine for people who are interested in writing personal and family history.

"We have nearly 1,000 subscribers all over the USA and Canada," June says. She manages the circulation list and is also the art director, as well as the co-publisher. June, 47, has a BFA in art from Kansas State University. She has two sons, Ben, 18, and Rip, 14, and also is the stepmother of Charley's 22 year old daughter and 25 year old son by a previous marriage. Before they started the magazine, she and her husband were painting and papering contractors in Manhattan, Kansas.

About half of the contents of each issue are excerpts from the subscribers' own writings about themselves and their families. The other half is articles by Charley and others about how to go about writing personal and family history.

"Personal and family history should be written as narrative," Charley says, who was trained as a fiction writer and once taught fiction writing, as well as English composition, in a university. "Although all of us speak narratives (tell stories) every day, we aren't used to writing them. It takes a little training, but it's really a much easier and more natural way to write than how we were trained to write in our English classes."

A subscription to the monthly magazine permits the subscribers to send material directly to Charley for reading and comment.

The following is an excerpt from an article by Charley Kempthorne in their premier issue of LIFESTORY, Vol. 1 #1 Dec. 16, 1991 —

There are lots of good reasons, and almost no bad ones, for writing about your life. The pleasure of remembering days gone by, the chance to review your life, and the chance to contribute to history are some of the more important. But most of the time the clincher, at least for elders, is for their own children and grandchildren. In fact some of these elder/writers come to feel it is almost a duty.

Chances are by the time a parent has children in their mid-twenties, he finds that they are a little more willing to listen than they were ten years earlier. And by the time these children are in their mid-thirties and have children of their own growing up around them, then they begin to have an inkling of their own mortality. "When are you going to die, Mom?" is very innocent, not uncommon (and very natural) question for a five or six year old to ask. It starts them (these children of yours who are now parents themselves) to thinking of themselves as part of a progress of humanity in general and of their own family in particular. They start to think of themselves as passing on a torch that was handed to them by you.

And along about then they start to come to you and say, "Why don't you write down some of these stories you're telling me?" Or maybe they say to themselves, "Gee, I ought to tape some of this." Or they ask you to.

Sometimes you may get the feeling that they're telling you that because they don't want to take time to listen, not even now. And there may be some truth in that, but so what? Did kids ever listen to their parents? Did you listen to your parents? But don't you think you'd pay attention now, if only you had something they'd written for you to read?

You bet you would.

Charley's introduction of his publication LIFESTORY says it all! Three cheers for Charley and his wife, our cousin, June!

A sample copy of LIFESTORY may be ordered for $3 from LIFESTORY, 3591 Letter Rock Rd, Manhattan, KS 66502, or $21 for a year's subscription or phone (800) 685-7330 (orders only) and charge it to your VISA or MC.

Arrivals in the Port of Philadelphia 1727-1808

The following records of Junghen (et var) arrivals in the Port of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, are taken from the three volume set "Pennsylvania German Pioneers", a publication of the original lists of arrivals in the Port of Philadelphia from 1727 to 1808, by Ralph Strassburger, LL.D., then president of the Pennsylvania German Society and edited by William Hinke, PH.D., D.D., published 1934. I have taken all spelling that even closely resemble Junghen.

Volume Two of this set are reproductions of the actual passenger's signature on some of the ship's logs. Where available, these signatures will follow the other information. Also remember that the individual's name spelling was an interpretation of the authors, Strassburger and Hinke.

Retirement offers opportunities for Don & Donna Younkin of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida — and father of Donna Younkin Logan!

Who says retirement can't be fun! Don and Donna Younkin, of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, have found a way to stay busy and get paid for it. The above "coupon calendar" for the Subway restaurants, showing Don and another model, is the first national spot Don has done. He and Donna have also done television commercials for a Ft. Lauderdale car company and several other local spots. But on the national (and international) fronts, Don has appeared on a German soap opera, was a stand-in on the TV show Moon Over Miami, and appeared in an Italian magazine. His recent credits for print media include an issue of Woman's World magazine (December 21, 1993) when he portrayed a Judge for an article entitled "Sue Anyone and Win." Keep your eye out for two national television spots coming up. Reader's Digest, an ad for a new set of compact disks "Memories of the '50s & '60s." In this one he'll be playing on the beach with his grandson and strolling along the beach with his wife. Another Reader's Digest role will be a commercial for one of its homeowner "How-To" manuals. In this one his line is "$45 to fix a faucet — there must be a better way!"

Frederick G. Younkin Cemetery Headstone Fund continues to grow!

Attendees at last summer's Younkin Reunion were pleasantly surprised to see this new stone marking the Frederick G. Younkin Cemetery. Kay Lynn (Younkin) Wilson and her family donated this marker.

Artistic rendition (by Jennifer Logan) of what the Frederick G. Younkin Cemetery stone will look like. We are almost there and hope to have the entire $1,000 by this summer! We've collected $568 so far. Then we'll start work on a new headstone for Frederick's brother, Jacob, in Crossroads Cemetery. Contributions have been received from: Laurel Posey, Eleanor Buzalsky, Bill & Loretta Kelldorf, Tom & Evelyn Younkin, Bill & Mary Hall, Mark A. Miner, Larry & Donna Logan, Caroly Carman, Laura Younkin Thomas, 1993 reunion and Roger Mall.

Amos Younkin & Family

Descendants of Rudolph

Please note: with this issue I am introducing a new format for lengthy family histories. I hope this will make it easier to understand and follow the lines. If there is information on future generations, that person is preceded by a number. You will find that person, and their family, listed later in the story under that number.

This family's records compiled from family group sheets sent in by Lucy Younkin Burdick, of Redfield, SD, and Leo Willis Younkin, of Hanford, CA.

FOURTH GENERATION

1. Amos⁴ YOUNKIN (John³, Rudolph², Henrich¹). Born 9 Feb 1838 in Perry Co, OH; died 22 Mar 1918 in New Market, Page Co, IA. Buried in Memory Cemetery, New Market.

He married 18 Aug 1874 in Washington Co, IA, Rachel L. BENSON. Born, 17 Nov 1857 in IA, died after 1918.

Amos and Rachel are found in the 1880 census of Nodaway Twp, Page Co, IA. The information on their children is from their family Bible, furnished by Lucy Younkin Burdick.

[Keokuk County Iowa Graves Registration shows: Bell YOUNKEN, died 18 Nov 1885, (no age given) daughter of Amos F. YOUNKEN. Buried South English Cemetery, English River Twp. No relationship to this family has been established]

The following obituary appeared in the December 20, 1938, issue of the YFNB:

Amos Younkin, an old and highly respected citizen of this community, passed away Friday morning about 11 o'clock. Some six weeks ago he suffered a stroke of apoplexy and has been confined to his bed since that time. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon in the M. E. Church, conducted by Rev. Douglass, and interment was in Memory Cemetery.

Amos Younkin was born in Perry County, Ohio, Feb. 9, 1837, and died at his home in New Market March 22, 1918. He was the son of John and Margaret [Trout] Younkin. He moved to Washington County, Iowa, in 1867, and from there to Page County in 1880, and settled on a farm six miles southwest of New Market, where he resided till about one year and a half ago when he moved to New Market.

He was married to Rachel Benson August 18, 1874. To this union four children were born, three of whom with his companion survive him. John Leroy died in infancy. The remaining children are Mrs. May Jones of New Market, Harvey Younkin of Huron, S. Dak., and Luella Bix of Clarinda, Ia.

Junghen Family Cookbook

By ROGER YONKIN

I am continuing our work on the Junghen Family Cookbook. This has become a much larger project than I had intended, I should have kept it simple. Several persons have sent me recipes over the past months, most all of which can be used.

Best of all, have been recipes found in old family recipe boxes, or copied from handwritten books, wherein the Junghen cook kept her favorite recipes. Several humorous recipes will be in my book and I want to add a section containing recipes for cures. Most every family had an arthritis cure, usually containing vinegar and honey.

Drinks have been among the most difficult recipes to obtain. Switchell, a favorite drink, especially during harvest, has several components, differing between families. Other drink recipes must be out there, send them in please.

The German names, given to many older recipes, have been forgotten by all but the oldest Junghens. If you have access to those names, or to those "older" Junghens, try to put names to recipes you have sent in, or will send. I am certain you have run into the same problem I have, when interviewing our elderly family members. Try as I may, I often can't get them to reminisce about simple day-to-day activities. These wonderful people, the vessels of so much family history, just don't realize we are interested in what they recall as such mundane occurrences. Those in their '90s saw our family leap from a way of life that had changed little in 20 years, to the modern society in which we now live. They are the last that can relate directly to what life had been like, what our family was doing, thinking.

I am as negligent as any however, in getting family history on paper. The stories my father told are, I am certain, leaving me little by little each year. I have always intended to sit down with a tape recorder and recall, as best I can, all that he had spoken. And then, I should go on and recall my own life as that will be of interest to my own descendants. When will I do this? When will you.....?

My mom, Ginny Schafer Younkin Fair is literally famous for her Lasagne recipe. No one turns down an invitation for dinner at mom's if this meal is on the menu! But the story behind the recipe is almost as good! With three daughters 15 months apart and another one several years younger, keeping the four of us in dresses was not the easiest job for our young parents. So in addition to sharing this favorite family recipe, I also sent Roger the story behind her famous Lasagne. You'll enjoy reading it as much as eating the Lasagne! — Donna

Please do your part!

Roger has sure done his!

Willis Honderick Younkin, 86, died Jan. 2, 1994. He was born Oct. 23, 1907, at Nickerson, the son of William Elsworth and Mary Jane (Honderick) Younkin. He was a resident of Victoria, Tx. He married Grace Elizabeth Carrigan. She preceded him in death. He was a maintenance supervisor for Hidalgo County Courthouse in Alamo. He was a US Navy veteran of World War II, serving in the Pacific.

He is survived by one brother, Charles Younkin, of Lake Placid, Fla., and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by three sisters, Clara Cummings, Florence Hahn, and Marietta Younkin; and four brothers, Ralph Younkin, Donald Younkin, Harold Younkin and William Younkin.

He was laid to rest in the Centerville City Cemetery, following military honors by Veterans of Foreign Wars, Catholic War Veterans, Disabled American Veterans and the Marine Corps League.

[Many of our cousins met Willis last summer at our reunion, which he attended with his brother, Charles. He will surely be missed by us all.]

The Family of John William Taylor Younkins

Middletown, Frederick County, Maryland

Based on the study that I have done on this family in Frederick County, I believe they are descendants of Rudolph. But this has not been proven, beyond a shadow of a doubt. [please see previous stories]

John William Taylor YOUNKINS, was the son of John and Sarah Jane (FISH) YOUNKINS of Middletown. He was born 28 Sep 1848 in Middletown, and was baptized at the Zion Lutheran Church in Middletown by Rev. A. M. Kest. He married (1) 10 Feb 1868 Indiana "Elizabeth" REEDER, daughter of David and Ruth (ALEXANDER) REEDER. She was born 11 Sep 1848 and died 20 June 1891 in Middletown.

He married (2) Cornelia A. MERRYMAN, who died 22 Jun 1938 in Middletown.

John and Elizabeth's children:

- 1) Lillie May — b 2 Jan 1869, d 19 Jun 1894, m Charles FORREST
- 2) Charles Walter — b 14 Oct 1871, d 10 Apr 1929, m Lulu Mae MOSS
- 3) John David — b 22 Dec 1872, d 13 Oct 1898
- 5) William Edward — [see below]
- 6) Sarah Elizabeth Ruth — b 9 Apr 1877, m first Jake FOREMAN and second Mart BUTTS
- 7) Minnie Alice — b 14 Dec 1878, d 30 Jul 1951, m Clayton HEFFNER
- 8) Zella Elizabeth — b 27 Nov 1883, d 1 Jun 1968 m --?-- McBRIDE
- 9) Jasper Philhower — b 13 Jul 1881, d 5 Oct 1962, m first Lizzie B. JENNINGS and second Ruth AUSHERMAN
- 10) Lewis E. McComas — b 30 Apr 1887, d 31 Jan 1956, m Lydia Anna FLOOK.

Children of John and Cornelia:

- 11) Martin Abner Hamilton — b 13 Mar 1895, m Alice MOSER.

William Edward YOUNKINS, son of John and Elizabeth (REEDER) YOUNKINS, was born in Middletown on 11 Jan 1875, and died in Hagerstown in 1950. He married Mary "Bessie" MOSER. She was born about 1876 and died 16 Dec 1966 in Hagerstown.

The children of William and Bessie were: Carmie E., Guy P., George W., Ida Gale, Fred W., Edna (TOMS), Clarence Isaish, Agnes (MOSER), Cledith "May" (RECHER), Edwin Austin, and Roy C. YOUNKINS.

Most of the above children, and their descendants, remained in the Frederick and Washington County areas of Maryland.

Just Wouldn't Believe It!

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Younkins, Middletown, Maryland, say they would never believe it had they not discovered the truth for themselves. For years they suffered intolerable physical discomfort. Many medicines were recommended and tried. All resulted in disappointments. Then, as he says:

"I saw Crystalene advertised in a local newspaper. Mrs. Younkins and I tried it. We knew from that moment on that we had discovered the medicine we needed!

"I had no appetite, was constantly losing weight, my blood pressure was over 300, and I felt that I should never be able to get well again. But Crystalene overcame all that, and I now feel as though I were only forty years old!"

Mrs. Younkins says: "I could add much to what Mr. Younkins has said, but I want mainly to say that I don't think there is a better medicine than Crystalene, especially if you feel tired and run-down. Take my advice and try it. You can't lose a cent, for it's guaranteed to benefit you!"

To this happy account of only one case in thousands we add, you must try Crystalene. It will aid you, particularly if you suffer with constipation, headaches, biliousness, stomach disorders, run-down physical condition, or any one of many other common chronic ailments, try Crystalene, America's Marvelous Laxative Tonic.

Buy a bottle of Crystalene today at the Central Drug Store, 4-6 Beeson Blvd.

This clipping was sent in by Tom Younklin, of Ashland, Ohio. It was part of Tom's father, Otto Younklin's collection of Younklin memorabilia. Otto Younklin was the president of the Younklin Association in the 1930s and '40s. Based on other articles on this clipping, Tom feels it was published in the mid to late 1930s.

I am pretty sure (by process of elimination) that this is William Edward and Mary Bessie (Moser)Younkins. He was a son of John William Taylor Younkins.

Visitor comes to Somerset County

Just down the road from our home in southern Somerset County, the Alber Knobloch family operate a cheerful restaurant, Shepherd's Farm, situated on Rt. 281 with a stunning view of the mountainous countryside.

Their farm sits across from the restaurant. Their barn painted the familiar red, but their fields grazed by flocks of sheep rather than the dairy cows common in the county. Lamb sandwiches distinguish the restaurant's menu.

A few miles up the frequently traveled highway, drivers pass a dairy farm typical of the county with one exception. The tidy lawn, flowers and shrubs and carefully maintained buildings indicate pride in home and business. The barn, however attests to a streak of independence, for it is painted an unusual color, forest green. This is the home of dairy farmer Gerald Younkin [should have read Younkin], and his wife, Iris, who is an active partner in their enterprise, assisting daily in the milking parlor. [Actually, Kay Lynn (Younkin) Wilson, their daughter, lives on this farm! though all three actively work the farm]

On a warm sunny afternoon last year, a car pulled into the Shepherd's Farm parking lot and a well-dressed lady marched inside. She'd seen the farm across the road from the restaurant and wanted to know if she could get a glass of real milk, straight from the cow. (Apparently she had not noticed the sheep in the fields.)

Always courteous, the restaurant staff told her while she couldn't get real milk there, they'd see if a local dairy farmer could help her. "We thought of you right away," Shirley Knobloch told Iris when she telephoned her. "If she looks like she won't mind going to the milking parlor, tell her she can stop by." Iris responded.

The lady marched out of the restaurant without further ado, drove to the Younkin's farm where she hopped out of her car and walked up to Iris' daughter, Kay, who had stopped mowing to greet the stranger. The stranger announced, "I've come for my glass of real milk." Not knowing about the telephone call but never ruffled by the unexpected, Kay said, "You must want my Mom."

By that time, Iris, glass in hand, appeared and escorted the visitor to their milking parlor where she filled the glass with fresh whole milk from the tank. As the lady drank greedily, a look of satisfaction crossed her face. She asked to see the milk in the tank. "I'd have taken her straight to a cow for the milk if they'd been in the barn, she seemed so happy," Iris said later.

Iris and her visitor talked awhile. The lady had lived on a chicken farm in Texas years ago where they traded eggs for fresh milk with a nearby dairy farm. She and her husband were in Pennsylvania for the funeral of a family member and had taken a drive in the country to console themselves. Seeing all the farms, she suddenly just had to have a glass of fresh milk. Satisfied, the lady turned to go.

"Come again if you're in the area," Iris exclaimed.

The moral of this story is: That old state tourism slogan was right, visitors do find friends in Pennsylvania, or at least here in Somerset County. — by Peggy Porter, Markleton, Pa

A Tribute to Our Family

Volume 5, Number 2

April, May, June 1994
ISSN 1058-2045

Donna Younkin Logan, publisher

Dear Cousins,

As this summer's nationwide Junghen family reunion fast approaches, I anxiously look forward to seeing many familiar faces and lots of new ones as well!

As all of you will know by now, the reunion committee decided to change the format of the reunion somewhat. This year it will be "a covered dish" in the tradition of that special reunion that was held 60 years ago this summer. Those of you who will be coming a great distance will not be expected to bring a green bean casserole. You'll have plenty of opportunities to contribute to the fare of the day. To keep costs down, unlike past years, this reunion flyer was only sent to our cousins who subscribe to the newsletter or have attended (and signed the guest book) at a past reunion. This still required sending almost 500 invitations (last year we sent out almost 800). We are hoping you will pass the information on to your cousins; or send us their names and addresses and I'll be happy to pop one in the mail to them.

We can learn much about our early Junghen families in many different ways — but I have found that research on other families they were associated with is one of the most beneficial! As you read through this issue, you will note that there is indeed a rather lengthy article on the HAUPT family. You might ask yourself — why is she doing a story on the HAUPTS? Let me answer the question before you ask...

The Haupt (also known as Houpt) families were immigrants from Germany and came over about the same time as our Junghen family. Call it "Psychic Roots" but I believe that the Haupt and Junghen families knew each other before immigrating to America. See if you don't agree with me after you've read the story. But there is even a more substantial reason to investigate the HAUPTS — they married our Younkens!

Nora Revoir & Karst Younkin 'tie the knot' in Walkersville; and why not? After 111 years of married life, they missed it!

Please Note:

In our last issue (vol. 5 #1, page 2) I noted the new information on the burial of Sarah Youngkin, wife of Abraham Youngkin. Directly below this was also the burial record for a "Mary A. Youngkin died 22 Dec 1859 aged 21 years, 5 months and 6 days." This Mary, actually Mary Ann (Hall) Youngkin, was the first wife of Dr. Jerome W. Youngkin (Abraham¹, Abraham², Herman¹). My thanks to Della and Melvin Schafer, Haysville, Ks. for their help with this!

Wife of Henry Clay Youngkin mourned again 84 years later!

The following obituary appeared 3 Feb 1994 in the Yoakum Herald-Times [TX] as part of a series of old articles the newspaper has been running:

Deaths

1/6/1910 — Mrs. Elizabeth (Shafer) Youngkin of Hallettsville passed away recently. Mrs. Youngkin, at the time of her death, had reached the ripe old age of 82 years. She was preceded to the grave but a few months by her husband [Henry Clay Youngkin], and grief at the loss of her helpmate, coupled with the weight of her four score years, hastened the end of a long life full of usefulness and Christian kindness. Deceased was the mother of Drs. Si and John Youngkin, both of this city, and besides these and a number of grand children, she leaves a host of friends and acquaintances who will sincerely mourn her death.

Ellis Island New York

The following is from a letter I received from a friend of mine, Robert J. "Bob" Libby, of Iowa City, Iowa, who recently toured Ellis Island:

"There is an aura about that place that makes you feel the presence of those brave immigrants. I could sense the fear that they must have felt and their anxiety and wonder inherent in their new life. It is a wonderful place. On the Island, also, is a wall in the nature of the Viet Nam Wall which lists the thousands of immigrants who passed there. There was only one name that would be of interest to you — THE CHARLES YOUNGKIN FAMILY. The facility didn't go into operation until 1895 so this family would have arrived in that year or later. Only the names are listed. ... — sincerely, Bob"

Now my question is, does anyone know how we would go about finding information on this Charles Youngkin family from the Ellis Island records? — Donna Younkin Logan

He is survived by two sons: Charles of Westerville, OH. and Joseph Jr. of Dushore; two daughters: Mrs. Fred (Joyce) Keeler, Montoursville; and Mrs. Linda McCarty, Dushore. Burial was in Peace Cemetery, Dushore. [Joseph⁶ Richley, Jerome⁵ Richley, Jesta L.⁴ (Yonkin) Richley, Henry² Yonkin, Heinrich¹ Junghin, ?]

Guy M. McCarty, 46, of Dushore, PA, died Sept. 25, 1993, from injuries sustained in an automobile accident. He was born May 18, 1947, in Williamsport, a son of the late J. Francis McCarty and Elfreda Snell McCarty. Surviving are his wife, the former Linda Richley, and four daughters: Ellie L., Autumn Lynn, Timberli A. and Ember J.; and one son, Guy Joseph. Burial was in Peace Cemetery, Dushore. [son in law of Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Richley above.]

Esther R. Critchfield, 73, of Friendship Village, Bedford, PA, formerly of Fishertown, died April 3, 1994, in Altoona General Hospital. Born July 8, 1920, in Somerset County, she was a daughter of the late William and Lila (Yonkin) Trimpey. She was preceded in death by her husband, Ambrose, July 11, 1991, and also four brothers and three sisters. Survived by two sons: Joe, husband of the former Nancy Croyle, of Bedford; and James of Breezewood; also three grandchildren and one great grandchild. Also survived by a sister Mabel Marker of Somerset, and brother Harry Trimpey of Westmoreland County. Interment was in Bedford County Memorial Park.

The Younkins and Idens

Susanna (Younkin) Iden

Susanna⁴ YOUNKIN (John³, Rudolph², Henrich¹) was born 19 Mar 1826 probably in Morgan county, OH (just prior to her parents settling in Perry county, OH). She was one of John and Margaret (TROUT) YOUNKIN's 14 children. Susanna married about 14 Oct 1858 in Perry co, OH. John IDEN, born 10 Aug 1827 Loudoun co, Virginia, son of Alfred and Mary Ann (BELL) IDEN.

They raised a family of seven children:

- 1) Minerva Minnie IDEN — nothing further known.
- 2) Dewitt IDEN — m 15 Mar 1887 Mary Ann PIGG.
- 3) Julia May IDEN — m 212 Aug 1887 Harvey KIRK.
- 4) Margaret Ann IDEN — d 29 Sep 1910 Carlisle, AR.
- 5) Luella Belle IDEN — b 10 Jan 1867 Washington co, IA, d 8 Feb 1945 Washington co, IA, m 16 Dec 1889 Theodore Raymond BENN.
- 6) Joann Josie IDEN — b 26 May 1869 Washington co, IA, d 18 Apr 1956 Washington co, IA, m 14 Nov 1893 John R. Mc CREEDY.
- 7) Mary Catherine IDEN — b 9 Aug 1871 Riverside, Washington Co, IA, d 18 Feb 1968 Washington co, IA, m 24 Mar 1896 James Edgar GALLAGHER.

Thomas H. IDEN, a brother of the above John IDEN, married Elizabeth⁴ YOUNKIN (Samuel³, Rudolph², Henrich¹) a first cousin to the above Susanna (Younkin) IDEN.

Thomas and Elizabeth had at least four children:

- 1) Charles H. IDEN b 1858 Washington co, IA.
- 2) Chris IDEN b 1858/59 Washington co, IA.
- 3) William W. IDEN b 3 Jan 1860 Washington co, IA.
- 4) George W. IDEN b 11 Nov 1862 Washington co, IA.

After Elizabeth's death, Thomas IDEN married Harriet H. HOLMES and had a daughter Kate IDEN b 1869.

Another sibling of John and Thomas IDEN was Eliza Jane IDEN, b 10 Nov 1825 probably Loudoun co, Virginia, d 26 Jul 1908 in Riverside, Washington co, IA. She married 14 Nov 1849 Joseph⁴

YOUNKIN (Samuel³, Rudolph², Henrich¹), b 5 Jul 1823 in Ohio, d 17 Feb 1891 in Riverside. They are both buried in Riverside Cemetery.

Joseph and Elizabeth had eight children:

- 1) Gelissa Mary Ann YOUNKIN — m Samuel Ernest ALLIN
- 2) Samuel E. YOUNKIN — b 29 Mar 1853, d 12 Feb 1942 Cedar Rapids, IA, m Mary Alice McKNIGHT.
- 3) Elsie May YOUNKIN — b 28 May 1855 Riverside, Washington co, IA, d 31 Jan 1940 Pasadena, CA, m 31 Aug 1870 Riverside, Jabez Wesley ALLIN.
- 4) Alfred H. YOUNKIN — b 1857, d 1957 Riverside, m Louisa GODLOVE.
- 5) John H. YOUNKIN — b 30 Jul 1859 Riverside, d 1 Apr 1940 Riverside, m 5 Dec 1900 Iowa City, IA Anna E. FORD.
- 6) Laura YOUNKIN — d aft 1940 Plainview or Little Seal, TX, m 25 Dec 1885/1888 Harry Lyle SMITH.
- 7) female YOUNKIN — m J. H. PARNHAM.
- 8) J. Morris YOUNKIN — b Aug 1863, d Eugene, OR, m Maud --?--.

The fourth union of our Younkin family and the Iden family was Henry A.⁴ YOUNKIN (Samuel³, Rudolph², Henrich¹) and Mary Ann IDEN. She was the daughter of Jacob and Catherine (HARRING) IDEN. Jacob IDEN was a brother of Alfred IDEN (John Iden's father, who was mentioned previously).

Henry and Mary Ann had two children: Wilbur YOUNKIN (died in infancy) and Emma C. YOUNKIN, b Jan 1862, d 1937 Riverside. Emma married Dayhart S. HARDY 28 Nov 1894 in Riverside.

Some information on this IDEN family was provided by Diana Scott, 3009 Edith NE, Albuquerque, NM 87107. The photos, provided by Diana Scott, bear the name "Armstrong, of Washington, Iowa" photography studio. Much of the family research in Iowa was from work done by: Laurel Posey of Granada Hills, CA, Violet Esterman of Aurora, CO, and by Robert J. Libby of Iowa City, Iowa.

Arrivals in the Port of Philadelphia

In the last issue (Vol. 5 #1, page 9) I published a rather extensive listing of the Junghen (et var/various spellings) families who arrived at the Pennsylvania port of Philadelphia. Upon reading the listing over, I noticed that I did not have the signature for Johannes Junghen, from the ship Friendship. I realized after that issue went to press that I had omitted it because of additional information I wanted to add later, but then I completely forgot — I am sorry.

Friendship, qualified 21 Oct 1754 — Captain Charles Ross: Johannes JUNGHEN.

I hope that you will now take a couple minutes to look at this signature and compare it to the signature on Henrich Junghen's Will on page 10 & 11 — remarkable similarity! Do keep in mind that his name was most likely "Johan Henrich Junghen." (remember Henrich is Henry Americanized)

Now what is most interesting about this particular ship's arrival is the other passengers on board ship with this Johannes Junghen — Hennrich ESCH and Henrich SCHERER.

1) Hennrich ESCH — we all, by now, know that Henry Youngkin Jr.'s daughter, Sarah, married Joseph ESCH 13 Aug 1826 in Easton, Northampton co. PA (Easton is just above where our family lived in Bucks County).

2) Henrich SCHERER — we also know that the immigrant Henrich JUNGHEN married Catharine SCHERER, "daughter of Henry SCHERER (according to Henry Youngkin Jr.'s baptismal certificate.)"

Again, there are no female names listed on this passenger list — how unfortunate!

Information about this ship's origins and passengers stated: "The Foreigners whose names are underwritten, imported in the Ship Friendship, Capt. Charles Ross, from Amsterdam but last from Gosport, did this day take the usual Qualifications to the Government. 7 Roman Catholics. Qual. No. 117. Whole Freights 301. From Franconia & Hesse."

Hennrich Hoffmann	Mattheus	Peter Lot
Magdalena Junghans	20 July 1755	Regina Junghans
Georg Leonhard Junghans	Maria	Philipp
Maria Uhl	5 Nov 1755	Kauzmann Regina Junghansin

[Note: The "in" at the end of the second listing of Regina's name probably signifies that she is a female. An "en" or "in" was often added to the end of a female's root surname to denote the female gender— DYL]

The following is taken from a letter I received from Henry "Hank" Jones Jr., FASG. [Among his many genealogical credits, Hank was the winner of the Donald Lines Jacobus Award as the author of the best genealogical work published in 1986. His most recent book Psychic Roots — Serendipity & Intuition in Genealogy was recently published by Genealogical Publishing Co., Baltimore, Md., and I highly recommend it!] Hank is a cousin on my Crippen family line and offered to check his collection of German Palatines for us:

"I checked my 17,000 documented family group sheets on New York Palatines, just in case some Younkin (et var.) families were there. I note that Mattheus JUNGHANS and wife Anna Margaretha were in the Dutchess Co., NY area at an early date. They had son Henrich bpt. at Albany Reformed Church 3 Feb 1739. Sibylla Magdalena, daughter of Mattheus, married Johann Henrich HOFFMAN 25 Mar 1753 (Rhinebeck Lutheran Churchbook).

"My two volume set THE PALATINE FAMILIES OF NEW YORK — 1710" notes a Nicholas JUNGENS (Hunter Lists #352), whom I found in Germany after years of digging in Veldenz. He married, as son of the late Cornelius JUNGENS, there 2 Feb 1706 Anna Magadalen HASS. He came in 1709, settled in New York, but drowned in 1715, apparently without issue." — Sincerely, Hank Jones Jr.

This early history of the HAUPT family is part of a collection of records on the Haupt family of Bucks county, Pennsylvania, found in the Spruance Library and Museum in Doylestown, Pa. (home of the Bucks County Historical and Genealogical Societies). As has been stated in this newsletter previously, there were two distinct early connections between the HAUPT and YOUNKIN families in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. The immigrant Herman JUNGHEN's daughter Maria "Catharine" YOUNKIN married Henry HAUPT, son of immigrant Sebastian HAUPT. And their oldest son, John HAUPT married Anna "Elizabeth" YOUNGKIN, daughter of Herman's brother, Henrich JUNGHEN. Because of the obvious closeness of these families, it might be speculated that their relationship was established prior to their immigration. (Perhaps even coming from the same place in Germany.)

The following historical analysis of the colonial Haupt family was prepared in 1931 by Anita Eyster, a descendant of this line. Anita was the great grandchild of John Haupt. You will recall she also wrote the article "Junghen Family of Bucks County" which was reproduced in the very first issues of our newsletter. (It was also printed in the 1930s editions of the YFNB.) Anita's original collection of records on the Haupt and Younkin families has recently been donated by members of her family to the Spruance Library. I hope you enjoy Anita's original accounts as much as I did:

The first of the HAUPT family to arrive, so far as we know, was Sebastian HAUPT. He came on the Ship Glasgow, arriving in Philadelphia Sept. 11th, 1738, and we learn from the Ship List that he was twenty three years old. It is, to be sure, quite impossible to trace the early movements of the immigrants. We assume that they found, usually in Philadelphia, friends who had arrived before them and that they waited there till they decided where to settle. Probably all of them went to work at once at whatever trade they had.

Sebastian HAUPT was a cooper, and perhaps that was the reason that he went out into the country as soon as he could and took up land somewhere near the Perkiomen Creek. The first actual knowledge we have about him is that he signed the Oath of Allegiance in Philadelphia County, Sept. 5th, 1750. The next information is from an early Tax Record of 1756, "in the Township called Perkiomen and Skippach," where he is recorded as possessing 125 acres, of which 60 are cleared, and three children. This gives an idea of the incredibly hard labor that was needed to take up this primitive land. Also the note about the children is verified by the records of the old Trappe Lutheran Church, where we find about this time the confirmations of his children; Elizabeth, born 1742; Henry born 1744; Anna Maria, born 1748. (There also are in the Trappe Records note of the children of a John Nicholas HAUPT, who had taken up 50 acres in this Township in 1741. But he was an Indian Trader and he soon moved on into the northern Counties, so we need not include him in an outline of the Philadelphia families.)

The two daughters of Sebastian Haupt have not been traced, although we know, at the time of his death, that there were granddaughters named WEISS. We also learn from his Will that Henry [who married Maria "Catharine" YOUNGKIN] was his only son. Probably there were not more than three children, as we know from the burial record of his wife, Catherine, that she was at least 35 years old at the marriage and ten years older than Sebastian.

Meanwhile, another member of the HAUPT family, destined to become the head of a long line, was arriving in Pennsylvania. Samuel HAUPT came on the Ship Edinburgh, in 1754, and probably from the same Palatinate town, a first cousin, if not a brother, of Sebastian. He too waited a few years before locating, and it was not until 1759 that he bought from William Loofborrow 95 acres on the Limekiln Pike, which remained in the family possession for 100 years.

It is interesting to speculate where he spent those five years, recalling the history of that time. "In November, 1754, in the midst of the excitement and recruitings growing out of the French War, there was agitation in Philadelphia because of a pestilence which had broken out and was spreading through the place. It was a sort of ship fever or typhus, and engendered about the unhealthy, crowded vessels which brought Palatines to the port. Although a quarantine station had been established at the mouth of the Schuylkill, the City Council nevertheless requested the port physicians to visit all ships in the harbor and all the houses where Palatines lodged. Dr. Bond reported that in several houses there were groups of Germans, all sick and liable to spread the plague. He mentions one party at Philip Burkhardt's, near the Dutch Reformed Church, another at Frederic Burk's, Spring Garden. At Jacob Cost's, in Dirty Alley, twenty were down with the fever, and so on." [quoted from Scharff & Westcott, Vol. I] From this we may infer that there were houses which made a business of taking in the German immigrants and many of them, in their wretched condition, were badly imposed upon and robbed. In the same year, 254 of these strangers were buried.

Now when Samuel HAUPT bought his plantation in Upper Dublin, in March 1759, he was already married and his son Philip was three months old. We have no record of the name of his wife, though she evidently soon died. Here we may be permitted to use a little imagination, building on some known facts. On the same Ship Edinburgh, which brought Samuel HAUPT, there were Philip and Henry SUMMERS, whose father, with the rest of the family, had preceded them by two years and was already settled in Horsham. As we have seen, in 1754 the city of Philadelphia was full of typhus fever. What more reasonable than to suppose that Samuel HAUPT went at once with these young men, (probably old friends and neighbors,) to the home already established in the country, which would give them a ready welcome. Now this family included two young women, Elizabeth and Margaret. It is perhaps not right to assume too much, but the child of Samuel's first marriage was named Philip; his second wife, whom he married about 1763, was named Margaret, and by her he had eight children, of whom the first daughter was named Elizabeth, and called Lissy, and the second daughter was named Ann Elizabeth and called Betsy. The supposition that Samuel married one or both of Philip SUMMERS' sisters seems plausible. His oldest daughter Elizabeth later married Philip SUMMERS' oldest son.

Now we may suppose that Sebastian HAUPT, over on the Perkiomen, would soon find it possible to travel across the Skippack Road, to visit his newly arrived cousin. And when Samuel HAUPT settled on the beautifully situated tract in Upper Dublin, Sebastian thought of a trade for his son Henry, now nearly grown, as well as his own business, and he picked out a mill property of 108 acres, now for sale through the death of John Kirk, and separated from Samuel HAUPT's tract by the distance from Jarretstown to Dreshertown. He came here in 1761. In 1766 his elderly wife Catherine died and was buried at Puff's, as we learn from records of St. Michael's, Germantown. But some months before this, the son Henry married and he took for his wife the 17-year-old daughter of Herman YOUNGHAN, who had settled in the far upper corner of Bucks County about the time that Sebastian HAUPT came to Pennsylvania. That Henry HAUPT should have gone so far for his wife seems to connote a previous acquaintance with the family, and in fact, if we ever discover what town in the Palatinate was the home of one of these families, we shall probably know the home of all of them.

To conclude the story of Sebastian HAUPT, before tracing the later history of his son Henry; he married again, within a year, Mary, the widow of Derick CASTLEBERRY, who had presumably been his neighbor in Perkiomen. By 1770 he seems to have been able to retire from business, selling his land and buying a house in Philadelphia, on Elm St. near 3rd, where he lived until his death in 1782. He left property for the support of his wife, which was sold at her death in 1797, and the money distributed to his son Henry and the granddaughters.

His cousin Samuel HAUPT, in Upper Dublin, died two years later, leaving a family of four sons and four daughters, most of whom carried on the traditions of the family, living and marrying in Upper Dublin and nearby Townships, and their descendants are still largely in Montgomery County. Samuel HAUPT was buried at Puff's and we suppose that Sebastian was also.

Meanwhile the son Henry operated the mill property in Upper Dublin, which included grist and saw mills, and we may infer that the business was profitable, for in 1770 he bought from his father in law, Herman YOUNGHAN, for 1200 pounds, a mill property in Springfield Township, Bucks County, near Durham, for which Herman YOUNGHAN had, two years before, paid 500 pounds, and which had sold earlier, in 1762, for 275 pounds. On this property Henry HAUPT settled, with his wife and two children born in Upper Dublin, and here he established a family which is still [in 1931] in possession of the land. The next year, 1771, Henry bought from his father 80 acres of the Upper Dublin tract paying 150 pounds for it. This he probably rented and three years later, he sold it for 515 pounds, a very substantial profit.

The Junghen & Haupt Families

About this time the lots of the Durham Tract were put up for sale, and Henry bought two of them, including nearly 500 acres, along Cook's Creek, adjoining his earlier purchase. Here he erected a house, which is still standing [in 1931] in good condition, and here he raised a large family, of whom ten grew to adult age. The records of these are contained in the large German Bible, which has been passed from one generation to another, until the present day. Unhappily, the Bible of Samuel HAUPT, though left in his will to his oldest daughter, Elizabeth, cannot be found.

It may be of interest to note here that in the family of Samuel HAUPT of Upper Dublin and in that of Henry HAUPT of Springfield and Durham, there is a striking similarity of names. In each family for three generations we find repeated the names of Henry, John, Samuel, Jacob, Elizabeth, Catherine.

Henry HAUPT signed the Oath of Allegiance to the Commonwealth on May 27th, 1778, at Durham and he is recorded in the Associators and Militia, Capt. George Heinlein's Co. of Durham, in 1781. He had a busy life, buying and selling much property, running mills, farm, distillery and forge, and his six sons were kept so strictly and severely at work, that each of them, as he came of age, went out of the homestead to work for himself. Henry HAUPT died in 1809, and was buried at first in private ground, later at Durham [Union] churchyard. The inscription on his tombstone reads:

JOHN HENRY SEBASTIAN HOUP

which has caused confusion with his father Sebastian, but in all other accounts, Church records and legal documents, he signed himself simply HENRY HOUP.

We have said that the sons of Henry HAUPT scattered as soon as they could escape from parental control. It is commonly said that the Bucks County Haults went north, south, east and west. At any rate, Samuel went to New York State, taking with him his wife, Elizabeth SWEITZER, from Bucks County; Abraham went to Illinois, and the youngest daughter, Elizabeth, went with him and married there; Henry and Sebastian went to Alabama, the family of the latter going to Texas; Jacob settled in Philadelphia, marrying a granddaughter of another HAUPT line, and from his sons come the wellknown Philadelphia families, one of them being that of Gen. Herman HAUPT, of Civil War fame, and the father of the noted engineer, Lewis M. HAUPT.

The oldest daughter of Henry HAUPT, Mary Magdalena, married Abraham KREIDER and went into Central Pennsylvania. The second daughter, Catherine, married Septimus EVANS, the son of Capt. Nathan EVANS, an officer of the Revolution, and this family is well represented in Chester and Delaware counties. The third daughter, Sarah, married Abraham PIESCH, a wellknown merchant and shipowner of Philadelphia, who was ruined in the War of 1812, when the French privateers destroyed his merchant vessels. He left no children.

Of all this large family, only the oldest, John, came back to the homestead to carry on the line in Bucks County. We have some direct evidence here, unfortunately only fragmentary. In the papers of John HOUP, 2nd, at the Homestead, only a few years ago, there was found a single sheet of paper, which was the first page of a life history, begun by this first John HOUP, oldest son of Henry [and his wife Maria "Catherine" Youngkin, daughter of Herman JUNGHEIN]. Short as it is, it gives us a glimpse of the family that is invaluable. We quote from this:

I, John Houpt, was born near Philadelphia on the 12th day of June, 1767. My parents were Henry and Catherine[Youngkin] Houpt. My grandparents emigrated from Germany, which country they left in consequence of the persecution of the Protestants, preferring the wilderness of America, with the freedom from persecution, to the cultivated fields of Europe in connection with the oppression. They were by profession Lutherans, or Episcopalians, as the believers of the same doctrine are called in England.

My parents brought me up in strict obedience to the church discipline and creed of the religious society of which they were members; and to that creed I have adhered during life; but I think with more liberality towards those who are of a different opinion than was manifested by my parents. For as I have looked back and reflected on their pertinacious adherence to forms and ceremonies, I have concluded that they were somewhat superstitious in being so very strenuous in their way and that they were not sufficiently charitable towards others.

Being the oldest of my father's children, of which there were ten sons and daughters, I was, after the manner of the Germans, kept closely to work by my father at his business, he being a farmer, and therefore got but very little learning, though I so far improved my limited opportunities within my reach, as to be able to read the German language, though I never went to German school.

When I arrived at the age of twenty-one years, I resolved to see a little of the world, and though my parents were opposed to my determination, yet having resolved I was not to be turned from my purpose. When the day arrived which I had fixed for leaving home, my father, who was just ready to go to church, put a small amount of money, less than...

Here the page abruptly ends. It would be most interesting to know what he did with his new freedom, in the year 1788. But at least we know that by 1792 he had married Elizabeth YOUNGKEN [dau. of Henrich JUNGHEN] and was back at the mill, living in the end rooms of the old mill, and by 1796 was able to buy from his father Henry the original 90 acres, with the mills, paying this time the sum of 2000 pounds. The Account Book which he kept the first year that he owned the mills is in the possession of the Bucks County Historical Society. Nearly fifty deeds are in the keeping of the present owner of the property [William F. Witte, grandson of John HAUPT], the earliest dated 1758, showing the many land acquisitions of the Houpt family.

Soon after John HOUPT bought the mills, he was able to erect a large and substantial stone house, which is the present homestead, and dates therefore about 1798. He raised there a family of ten children, but of his four sons, only one married. That one was Abraham, who married Rachel, the daughter of William and Jane LONG, but left only one son and grandson, who has no male issue, so unhappily, there is no one to carry on the name in this line. The homestead and mills became the property of the second son, John HOUPT 2nd, who lived till old age, with his spinster sister, Elizabeth, and at his death, willed the homestead to the family of his youngest sister, Mary Ann, who had married the Hon. William H. WITTE, and whose son is now (1931) the owner of this fine old property.

John HOUPT so far profited by his early hardships that he gave to his children all the advantages of education that might be had in his day. It is notable that the family has produced few farmers but many engineers and professional men. And the Lutheran creed is still held amongst them, with its harshness modified by time.

Now the descendants of these worthy pioneers have come together in the effort to preserve the history of that primitive time. It is our hope that for many years we may carry forward the traditions of our forefathers.

Charleroi Charley's Prolific Pen

By MARK MINER

"Box 170, Charleroi, Pa." was the most famous address in the Younkin family in the 1930s and early '40s, belonging to one Charles Arthur Younkin. "Charleroi Charley," as he has been called, was a wholesale grocer, reunion organizer, journalist, voluminous letter writer and all-around family cheerleader. His pioneering genealogy work resulted in a national following involving thousands of cousins, a phenomenon he called the "great Younkin awakening." His efforts set the stage for the renewed interest in Younkin family connections today.

Born at Clay Run, near Mill Run, Pa., on April 16, 1880, Charley was one of 10 children of William Dayton and Lucinda (Harbaugh) Younkin. He was raised on the family farm, where he no doubt heard many stories of his pioneer Younkin and Harbaugh ancestors who had settled in the area. At age 22, Charley married Saloma Hall. They lived in Connellsville for a number of years before moving to Charleroi, a river town in the Monongahela valley. He made his living in the wholesale grocery business, working as a "poultryman and salesman." In his later genealogy work, his sales experience came in handy.

Charley and Saloma had five children — Bessie Marie Todd, Clarence W., Fred William, Harold and Emma Lou Gosney-Zance. Tragedy struck in 1929, when Bessie died of tuberculosis, leaving behind a husband and two young daughters. Three years later, in 1932, Saloma died, also of TB, making Charley a widower. It was during this period that he first became "engaged in genealogical work," perhaps to overcome the grief of his terrible loss.

Countless Missives

Charley's research consisted of trips to visit distant cousins in many states; delving into church, state and colonial records; walks through cemeteries; and nonstop correspondence. His letter writing was prolific, as evidenced by the countless missives he dashed off to Younkin relatives all over the country. Once he wrote that "I myself am not a speaker, but my hobby is writing ... [and] to blow the Younkin horn long and loud." By 1934 he had established that the Younkins were German and had arrived in America in 1737. Like most genealogists, he was continually frustrated by the "several missing links" in the family tree.

Charley considered it his "sacred duty" to help others discover their roots. In one letter to an Iowa cousin, he wrote:

"My heart is with all you fine Younkin folks in any move to help bind this great family more closely together." Many sent him photographs, Bible records and news clippings. He was persistent, and often sent a series of follow up letters to cousins who had not replied soon enough for his satisfaction.

Charley's writing style was a bit hurried, rambling and flowery, but his salesmanship was effective: One letter promoting the reunion stated: "...anyone who misses this great affair will be missing a treat of their entire life."

Another said: "Dear friend, there is not any charge for the little information we are able to give on your branch though we are always glad to receive contributions to help carry on as we in our research work are at considerable expense...."

The First of Many Reunions

On the fateful 16th of July, 1934, one of Charley's letters arrived at the home of Otto Roosevelt Younkin in Masontown, Pa. The letter asked Otto to which Younkin branch he belonged and inquired about what Otto "thought of holding a reunion of the Younkin's." Otto replied the next day, stating he "was in favor and would do what [he] could towards making it a success."

Less than three weeks later, Otto and Charley met for the first time, quite by accident, in a little cemetery near the village of Kingwood, Pa. Otto was visiting his mother in the area and, interested in genealogy himself, decided to visit an old Younkin cemetery. "Having spent an hour or so in the cemetery," Otto wrote, "we were ready to leave for other old burial grounds when another car drives in through the wilderness. Two men got out of the car, one of them whom I recognized ... [but] the other man was a total stranger to me.... Upon being introduced we learned this stranger to be none other than ... Charles A. Younkin of Charleroi, Pa., who was upon a similar mission as ourselves."

And so the friendship between Charley and Otto began. Several days later, Charley wrote to Otto proposing that they meet soon with other interested Younkins to plan a reunion. They did so, and the first reunion took place on Sept. 2, at the Kingwood Picnic Grove, after an ad-hoc committee launched an intensive postcard campaign to inform people of the big event. Charley later wrote that the first reunion "sprang up like a mushroom overnight."

The first reunion drew 400 people. Officers were elected to the new Younkin Family Association: Otto Younkin, president; attorney Frederick E. Younkin of Connellsville, Pa., vice president; Charleroi Charley, secretary; Milton Bruce Younkin of Rockwood, Pa., treasurer; and Nellie B. Wiley of California, Pa., assistant secretary. Special stationery was printed, and Charley was using it for his letters by the end of the year.

Attendance at subsequent reunions swelled. The event consisted of huge picnic meals, and morning and afternoon programs, including visiting, singing, orchestra music, speeches, comedy, dancing acts and ventriloquists. A booth was provided for display of old heirlooms, family letters, photos, records, titles and Bibles. The music was so popular that in 1937 the planners bought a piano "just to be used at this and following reunions."

In 1937, 1,000 people came to the reunion. In 1938, an incredible 1,500 people attended despite being in the chokehold of the lingering Depression. A columnist for the Pickaway County News, Ohio, learned of the event and said it was "the largest family reunion of which I have any record..."

The Original YFNB

Of all Charley's accomplishments, perhaps the one with the most impact was his work as editor of the Younkin Family News Bulletin, the forerunner to the newsletter you are reading now. The original YFNB was a six-page, five column tabloid format, published at Charleroi. The subscription price was $1.00 per year. The first issue, dated Christmas 1937, was loaded with family stories and obituaries, a 1937 reunion wrapup, and letters to the editor. Many of the articles were submitted by cousins, or were news articles mentioning Younkings. Later editions contained photos of relatives young and old.

All told, Charley published eight known editions of the YFNB — Christmas 1937; April 30, 1938; August 5, 1938; December 20, 1938; August 10, 1939; March 15, 1940; Sept. 25, 1940; and June 30, 1941.

By 1941, however, Charley had pushed himself so much that his health had begun to falter. He received a letter in April of that year from cousin Anita L. Eyster, a genealogist from Philadelphia, who stated that "I am certainly sorry to hear that you are laid up. I am afraid you have always worked too hard."

The Beginning of the End

Also by 1941, enthusiasm for the YFNB appears to have waned. Fred E. Younkin wrote to Charley in March of that year, saying "...that statement of yours that unless some miracle happens the present issue of the News Bulletin will be the last ever to be published strikes me with some pain and much concern."

The last known YFNB, dated June 30, 1941, contained an ominous foreshadowing of coming events. It included a letter from D.G. Younkin of Mesa, Ariz., commenting on the prospects for war and predicting that "We are certain to be called upon to sacrifice much, to work hard and long with no thought of the dividends which might accrue or the wages which could result but I'm sure our Younkin group will do that very thing."

The "great Younkin awakening" came to a explosive halt on Dec. 7, 1941 — the day the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor, plunging the country into World War II. Because of subsequent rationing of gasoline and fuel oil, automobile trips to reunions were no longer feasible. Due to wartime shortages of paper, publishing the YFNB was out of the question.

In the decades following the YFNB's demise, many subscribers passed their copies down to children and grandchildren. This printed record of a golden era in the family has directly led to widespread re-emergence of national interest in Younkin genealogy in the 1990s.

Ironically, though some of Charley's grown children attended the early reunions, none of them shared his interest in genealogy or carried on his work. Following his death, it is said, his research files were thrown away.

Charley's activities in his later years are little known. At some point of time in the 1930s, he began to keep company with Luella Shepard, a distant cousin who had moved to Charleroi from Dodge City, Kansas, and who played the piano at the reunions. They remained together until he died. In his last years, Charley suffered from dropsy, a condition in which fluids gather in body tissues.

On Jan. 30, 1950, Charley died at his home in Charleroi at the age of 70, after an illness of six months. He was buried beside his wife in the Imel Cemetery near Clay Run, in the same ground as several generations of his forefathers. He rests in good company, having exerted a very positive influence on countless Younkings past and present.

The Abraham Youngken Family

Descendants of Immigrant Herman Junghen

Abraham⁴ YOUNGKEN (Nicholas³, John², Herman¹) b 28 June 1833 in Bucks county, PA; d 13 Nov 1857 Bucks county, PA. He is buried at St. Luke's Lutheran Church near Ferndale in Bucks County. Abraham was a son of Johan "Nicholas" YOUNGKEN and his second wife Mary Elizabeth YOUNG of Nockamixon township.

Abraham married Mary FRANKENFIELD. The following history of the FRANKENFIELD FAMILY from "The History of Bucks County, Pennsylvania", edited by J. H. Battle, Philadelphia, PA, Warner & Company (1887), gives us an interesting background on Abraham's wife, Mary FRANKENFIELD.

"Adam FRANKENFIELD came to America from Germany, and settled in Springfield township. He has eight sons. Henry, the oldest, married Catherine WEAVER, to whom were born two sons and two daughters. Henry came to Haycock township in 1808, and purchased sixty-five acres of land from one Jacob HARDWICK. There were four children in this family. The eldest son, Henry, married Anna DATESMAN, daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth (SHELLENBERGER) DATESMAN, of Hilltown township, this county. They had three sons and two daughters. For thirty-five years Henry FRANKENFIELD was justice of the peace for Haycock township, and he held other positions of trust. His eldest daughter, Mary was born in 1832, and in 1855 was married to Abraham YOUNGKEN, a son of Nicholas and Mary YOUNGKEN, of Nockamixon township. One son born of this marriage, Abraham F. Abraham YOUNGKEN died in 1856 [his tombstone reads: born 28 June 1833, died November 13th, 1857]. She was again married to Aaron ZIEGENFUSS in 1861. Five children have been born of this marriage: Ellamanda, Anna, Mahlon, Henry and Harvey. ..."

Though Abraham YOUNGKEN died at the young age of 24, he and wife Mary had one son Abraham Frankfield YOUNGKEN (see his baptism certificate on Page) who was born 31 Mar 1858 in Haycock township, Bucks co, PA.

Mary FRANKENFIELD YOUNGKEN ZIEGENFUSS d 15 Nov 1917 in Fork's township at her daughter, Mrs. Martin Grube's home. She is buried in the Durham Union Churchyard.

FIFTH GENERATION

On November 2, 1878 young Abraham F.⁵ YOUNGKEN (Abraham⁴, Nicholas³, John², Herman¹) married Mary STEELY, born 6 May 1857, daughter of Christian and Mary (TRAUGER) STEELY, of Tinicum. Their marriage took place in Kinterville, Bucks county and was officiated by the Reverend W. S. Emery.

Much sadness was thrust upon this young man in the early years of his life. Abraham and Mary's first child, Mary Estella was born 26 Jan 1880 and a son followed the next year, Oscar William, born 15 June 1881. But tragedy soon struck. On September 5, 1881 infant Oscar died and less than a week later Mary Estella died. Both children are buried, side by side, in the St. Luke's Union Churchyard, near Ferndale.

Their third child, Christian Steely YOUNGKEN was born on May 25, 1883. But the grim reaper would not wait long. Abraham's young wife, Mary, died on July 9, 1885.

With a young son to be cared for, Abraham soon took a second wife. He married Ellamanda BOUGHER, daughter of Amos and Elizabeth (STOVER) BOUGHER, b 14 Oct 1865, d 26 Jan 1928.

Abraham and Ellamanda YOUNGKEN had two children: Horace YOUNGKEN b Apr 1887.

Alvin F. YOUNGKEN b 11 Apr 1893.

SIXTH GENERATION

Christian Steely⁶ YOUNGKEN (Abraham⁵, Abraham⁴, Nicholas³, John², Herman¹), b 25 May 1883 in Bucksville, d 11 Apr 1969. He was by occupation a farmer and milkman.

He married 24 Dec 1904 Minnie SERFASS, b 7 Dec 1881, d 11 Apr 1972, daughter of William Henry and Mary R. (NAGLE) SERFASS.

Christian and Minnie were active participants in the annual FRANKENFIELD reunions held in Bucks County and often won the award for being "married longest." Christian and Minnie and their son Henry and his wife also attended the YOUNGKEN reunions held in Somerset county, PA in the 1930s and '40s. They are both buried in Belfast Cemetery.

Children of Christian and Minnie YOUNGKEN (the children with a number prior to their name are continued later):

- 1 i. Mary Marguerite⁷ YOUNGKEN.
- 2 ii. Henry Christian YOUNGKEN.
- iii. Alvin William S. YOUNGKEN, b 27 Jan 1909, d 26 Dec 1911, buried Belfast Cemetery.
- 3 iv. Georgia Ellen Rebecca YOUNGKEN
- 4 v. Philip Frederick YOUNGKEN

Horace⁶ YOUNGKEN (Abraham⁵, Abraham⁴, Nicholas³, John², Herman¹), b 12 Apr 1887, d 13 Mar 1972.

He married Anna BEAN, b 21 May 1887 in Ferndale, d 11 Mar 1942 in Quakertown, Bucks co., daughter of Jonas/ Jonathan and Emma BEAN.

Karst Younkin & Nora Revoir 'tie the knot'

By MARG MILLS

Reprinted from the Glade Times & Mountain Mirror
Walkersville, Maryland

Last Saturday, April 9, Nora Jessica Revoir became the bride of Karst Eugene Younkin. They were married by the Rev. Mark Foucart at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Walkersville [MD], with both sides of the family and many friends attending.

The bride chose a crushed strawberry-colored dress for the occasion, while the groom was attired in a grey blue muted pinstripe suit, set off with a burgundy-colored bow tie.

A reception was held following the ceremony, and a family dinner held later that evening at Dan-Dee Family Restaurant, celebrated the union of the couple.

The couple resides at the Sunrise Retirement Center in Frederick [990 Waterford Dr. Frederick, MD 21702].

It has been a hectic three weeks for the newly married couple, who met just 15 months ago at Sunrise.

"We sat across from each other three meals a day for almost a year," says a beaming Mrs. Younkin. "I don't know as he ever really asked me to marry him," continues the new bride in a beautiful British accent. "It just happened."

"I started dating her about six months ago," said the new groom. "We had been here almost a whole year — it just seemed natural. Several weeks ago we went to lunch with my granddaughter (Donna Younkin Logan). I asked her then, what would you think if we got married? That was on March 20. On March 22 we told other members of the family, and here we are," he said.

For the wedding, Mr. Younkin purchased the first suit he'd bought in 25 years. "I was a railroader for 30 years. I lived in Arizona and out there it's so hot no one wears a suit. I just never really needed a new one until now," he explained.

The new bride also went on a shopping expedition for her wedding dress. Her daughter, Rosemary Revoir, flew in from her home in Paris, while her sister, Maria Jaggo came from London. Her son and his wife Sue and Clifford Revoir, who live near Hyattstown [MD] also have been on hand for preparations and planning.

The long, strawberry-colored dress was eventually found after several different trips to several different towns," said Ms. Jaggo. "She tried on a lot of dresses."

The day the couple went for their marriage license turned into a real family affair.

Besides the bride and groom, both sides of the family, including several grandchildren, went along to the Frederick County Court House. In all, two cars filled with people went with the couple to apply for the license.

"Everyone there was so nice to us," said Mrs. Younkin.

"And, many people just stood around to watch," said the groom's granddaughter. "People would finish what they had come to do and they would stay around to watch. Others came out of offices.

"The lady typing out the license had a hard time trying to stay serious, too. When she asked Nora if she had ever been married before, Nora answered: 'Of course I've been married. I have a daughter and son to prove it,' explained Mrs. Logan.

When the license application had been completed it was time to pay. Mr. Younkin took the $55 payment from his shirt pocket, put it down on the counter and said, "And it's worth every penny of it."

Best wishes have been received from all over the world, with family members living throughout the United States and beyond.

"When we told our friends and family in England and France they all thought it was wonderful," said the bride's sister. "I even mentioned it to a doctor friend I know in France, and he said he could only wish this could be an example for many of the people in France."

Marriage won't be new to either the bride or groom.

The new Mrs. Younkin was married for nearly 50 years before her husband passed away. Her husband was employed by the American Battle Monuments Commission, and they had two children, and four grandchildren.

Mr. Younkin was married for 61 years before he became a widower, and he has two sons, eight grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren.

He's a wonderful man," says the new bride. "And I married him for love, friendship and everything that goes with it."

"Of course, you know, I married an older woman," smiles Mr. Younkin. "She was 88 in January, and I won't be 88 until July 6. I'm looking forward to the love and companionship that marriage brings. I guess after being married for 61 years, you just get used to it."

Hello again cousins-in-law!

You know my job — I try to add a little humor to Donna's family histories, records and accounts. Sometimes it's hard to think of a topic, but this time it was easy thanks to a JOKE that arrived recently in our mail. The JOKE was a sample copy of The Youngkin Family News, published by ... (oh, just read the insert on this page for the details).

Let me share the JOKE with you. This "publication" was seven sheets of legal sized paper folded in half to give you 28 pages. It's a quarterly, and it's only $12 a year. How can you go wrong? Well, just look at what you get for your money:

(7) pages of generic "articles" written on about a 4th grade level, that could be about any family. You get information like: what a genealogist is; what descendants and ancestors are; a relationship chart; and how to organize a family reunion. (They don't mention any actual Youngkin family reunions, but they are willing to let you advertise for one if you may be having one.)

(6) pages of advertisements. Yes, you can get some great stuff! Mailing stickers; joke books; cookbooks; $35 "Books in Print" directories (use your library, instead); $64 plates; $34 flags; $54 plaques; and other "heirlooms" just too wonderful to mention (so I won't).

(3) pages are needed for the front page, back page, and the "coming in the next issue" page. Well, that's more than half the issue. But now comes the personalized Youngkin stuff.

The lead article is (4) pages of "The Oldest Youngkin in the World?" (Please note their "?" — they admit that they use a database for their information, and ... "Our records are not complete.") It takes them (4) pages to list 20 Youngkins from the "database," in very large print. Here is what they say about the oldest (?) Youngkin (and I quote):

YOUNGKIN, ROBERT

4 - 4 - 1883 12 - 15 - 1982

99, 8.11 TX 77992

This is sad, but they do manage to get worse. In an article on "The Most Popular Youngkin First Names, using their massive database of only 50 names, they say that "Robert" is the most popular name (because they found 4). "John" was the second most popular (they found 3), but incredibly, the names "B" and "C" were the 19th and 24th most popular names! I'll just bet you didn't know that!

With another database, they were able to do (2) pages of a "Youngkin Family Migration Report" based on 91 birth and death records. Using the numbers they had, they were able to conclude (again, possibly) that the most popular region that 9 Youngkins emigrated from was "Other," and the most popular region that 5 immigrants went to was "Southern." They sure bring family history to life!

GENERIC FAMILY NEWSLETTERS

The Chair of the Genealogy Committee of the History Section of the Reference and Adult Services Division of the American Library Association, J. Carlyle Parker, reported to the Committee at the recent annual meeting in San Francisco on a series of family newsletters being published by The Family News Network, 250 Coolidge St., Midvale, UT 84047; or at 3129 S. Dayton Ct., Denver CO 80231; or at 1181 S. Parker Rd. #102, Denver CO; and some using mailing permits from Greenwood Village, CO; or Englewood, CO ($7 per year, eight and a half by eleven inches, stapled on one corner). Half of the twelve pages represented in each issue are articles, the majority of which are of such a general nature that they could apply to hundreds of families. However, the family name is inserted here and there to make the articles appear as if they are relating specifically to a family. Usually the family name inserts are in a larger size and a mismatch type of font.

Anyone wishing more information on these family newsletters please contact J. Carlyle Parker Chair, Genealogy Committee of the History Section of the Reference and Adult Services Division of the American Library Association, 2115 North Denair Ave., Turlock, CA 95380.

[Reprinted from Heritage Quest magazine, vol. #44, page 75]

But that's not all! You get (2) pages of what your name sounds like (soundex surnames). Did you know that Youngkin sounds like YNZUNZA and YANKUN and YAMAGAMI??? Now, you may not be related to these people (they point out), but isn't that interesting? Youngkin can sound Japanese! (And it also can help fill 2 pages.)

But the JOKE wears thin with the obituaries page (their 1993 update), which included this:

04 - 15 - 91 B YOUNGKIN 45 (NJ)

Now, isn't that a personal touch. (At least B had one of the most popular names ...).

This is just another wonderful product made available to you through the wonders of computer data banks. Watch out for that "Information Superhighway." There appears to be a bunch of companies who are doing some serious littering along that highway.

Donna says these people probably got their information (at least what little they used) from the Master Death Index of the Federal Government's Social Security Administration. This information is available at most genealogy libraries (i.e. the Mormon Family History Centers) where they can be accessed easily from compact disks. And best of all, it's free!

Okay, I guess the JOKE is over now, unless you might be unfortunate to invest in this poor excuse for "Family News." Then the joke will be on you.

We'll see you next issue. Be careful out there. What did somebody once say: "There's a Youngkin (with a g) born every minute." No, that's not it. I must be thinking about the "Logans" (with a g). Take care now ...

PS— my thanks to Flora Youngkin Howell for letting us know (warning us) about this newest publication. — DYL

A Tribute to Our Family

Donna Younkin Logan, publisher

Dear Cousins,

When we started our family newsletter almost six years ago, one of the immigrant's sons, Henry Younkin Jr., was quite a mystery. Heck, we weren't even sure he was part of the family of Henrich and Catharine (Scherer) Junghen, because he was the only one of their 5 sons who spelled his name with a "G" in the middle! But thanks to the research efforts of a number of his descendants, he has been confirmed as a son.

Not only have Henry Jr's parents been proved, but over the past two years more records have been found on this line than any of the other lines — massive amounts! Not to mention all the new descendants we've found on this line. And it's these "newly found" descendants that have really puzzled me over the last two years. We haven't looked any harder to find Henry Jr. descendants than we have on any of the other lines — they just seem to have appeared! It's almost eerie. Like that baseball movie that was released a few years ago... "if you build it — they will come" and come they did — in droves!

The Federation of Genealogical Societies (FGS) and The Virginia Genealogical Society are co-sponsoring a conference this Fall for genealogists. The 4-day program, titled "Four Centuries of Family History" will be held in Richmond, Virginia, October 12-15, 1994.

National conferences such as these offer a program for family history researchers of every level and interest. The lectures provide excellent information from numerous qualified speakers. There will also be an exhibit hall that offering the latest in genealogical supplies and services.

If you've never been to one of these conferences, you're in for a treat. I have been to quite a number of them and have never been disappointed. Just some of the scheduled talks include:

- German Research in the Shenandoah Valley [VA], by Peggy Shomo Joyner
- Eighteenth-Century German Immigration: Effectively Using the Published Passenger Lists, by Annette K. Burgert
- The Silent Woman: Bringing a Name to Life [finding those female lines], by Sharon Carmack

Since I will be attending this conference, it sure would be nice to see some of my Younkin cousins there. For information, write to: FGS, P. O. Box 3385, Salt Lake City, Utah 84110-3385, or drop me a line, — Donna

Meet Your Cousin...

Ruthela (Roadman) Hetrick
of Akron, Ohio

AGE: "I was born January 27, 1924."

FAMILY: "I have a brother Roy and three sisters: Mary Olive, Anna Jane, and Norma June. I married Harold Hetrick November of 1951. Was widowed July 1961. We had no children."

WORK/CAREER: "I am a retired cab driver of 25 years."

HOBBIES: "Playing the mandolin, violin and organ."

FAVORITE SAYING: "The Lord is my Shepherd..."

GOALS: "To live a full life."

FAVORITE ANCESTOR: "My favorite ancestor has to be my great grandmother, Alice Almeda Younkin. She was a great inspiration to all who knew her. She really loved and relied on our Lord Jesus Christ. She always said that it was only by the Grace of God that she was able to raise her family as she was widowed at an early age with five children between the ages of 13 years and 3 months. In those days they didn't have welfare and relief. She kept boarders to make a living for her family. Then she raised my mother Reba King Roadman the first two years of her life. Then in 1938 at the death of her daughter Kathryn Huff she took on the task of raising her 6-year-old grandson William "Bill" Huff. She did so until her death at age 84 years in 1946. She never lost faith and love in her Lord and that's why she is my favorite ancestor. I also knew her personally."

My Apologies, Marlyn

Marlyn — hope you'll forgive me! This doesn't happen too often but occasionally one of these slips by.... Marlyn wrote to me in December of 1992 asking me to put her aunt's obituary in the next issue of the newsletter. Unfortunately, it was in a package of other information Marlyn was sending me and I completely forgot about it. Marlyn wrote: "My dear aunt Ethel Murphy, the inspiration for my genealogy work, died on 25 Sept 1992."

Salem, OHIO — Ethel Hartzell Murphy, 97, a former Hopedale resident, died Sept. 25, 1992, in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Phemie Crumbaker of Salem.

She was a retired practical nurse. Surviving are two other daughters, Mrs. Annabelle Brian of Phoenix, AZ, and Mrs. Jessie Metz of Leetonia; three brothers, Raymond V. Hartzell of Stuebenville, Lawrence L. Hartzell of Adena and Rowland S. Hartzell of Gibsonia, PA; a foster sister, Lucy Stinard of Smithfield; two sisters, Mrs. Gladys Hennebert of Martins Ferry and Mrs. Martha Langford of Weirton, WV; and 16 grandchildren, 44 great grandchildren and 11 great great grandchildren.

She was born Oct. 15, 1894, in Marshall County, WV, a daughter of the late James and Matilda (McGary) Hartzell. She had lived in the area since 1914. She was preceded in death by her husband, Tom Murphy; two sons, James Murphy in 1985 and George Murphy in 1944, and a daughter, Mrs. Agnes Gorman Toot in 1969; and two sisters.

Interment was in Washingtonville Cemetery.

Brian & Deborah (Younkin) Krise — a son, born 7 Jan 1994, Conemaugh Memorial Hospital, PA.

Ed Villarreal & Shanna Younkin — a daughter, born 21 Jan 1994, Windber Hospital, Confluence, PA.

In Memory Of

John Eli 'Jack' Younkin, of Charleston, South Carolina, died suddenly at his home on February 18, 1994. Mr. Younkin was 75 years old, and a Clifton, Easton resident from 1956 through 1966. Born July 26, 1918 in Morgantown, West Virginia, he was the son of John Eli and Henrietta (Shelkey) Younkin. He spent his boyhood in the Connellsville, PA, area graduating from Connellsville High School in 1936. He was well known for his trumpet playing during these years and won a number of contests.

He attended Carnegie Mellon University. He later joined the Army serving his country during World War II in Italy and North Africa.

Prior to retiring, Mr. Younkin was a procurement manager for Koppers Company Wood Preserving Division, and was the primary buyer of timber for the Eastern Shore region. Mr. Younkin was a member of the Easton Elks Lodge and St. Mark's Methodist Church where he served as chairman of the organ committee. Enthusiastic about good music, he was the principal force in St. Mark's organ design team that resulted in the purchase of the grand Teller pipe organ.

He was an avid collector of antique cameras and old records.

He is survived by his wife, Sara (Husband) Younkin of Charleston, and daughters, Barbara (Younkin) Jump Park, of Baltimore, MD, Elaine (Younkin) Clark of Portland, OR, Jeanette (Younkin) Cook of Charleston, eight grandchildren and one great grandchild. He is also survived by his brother Dr. Charles Robert "Bob" Younkin, M.D. of Houston, TX.

Interment was in Old St. Andrews Churchyard, Charleston, where Mr. Younkin had been Junior Warden.

Ten Generations of Our Younkin Family

by PAT YOUNKIN CHANCE

Jacob Younkin was the second son of immigrant brother, Henrich Junghen and his wife Catharine Scherer. Prior to his migration westward, he served his country during the Revolutionary War as a private in Captain Mamus Yost's Company Pennsylvania Militia from Haycock Township, Bucks County.

There is little doubt that the gently rolling hillsides of Virginia and Western Pennsylvania beckoned this young family west. Jacob and his young wife Hannah Nicola first lived for a few years in Loudoun County, Virginia, where many of their Bucks County neighbors as well as several of Jacob's siblings had gone. Remaining there only a few years, they settled permanently in Somerset County, Pennsylvania, in 1789, when Jacob patented 100 acres in Turkeyfoot Township, Bedford (now Somerset) County.

Jacob and Hannah reared a family of 10 children. One of their sons, John J. "Yankee John" Younkin married Mary Polly "Nancy" Hartzell and they also raised a large family. Their fifth child and second son, John Harrison Youngkin, b 4 Jun 1815, moved to Williamson county, Illinois sometime in the 1830s.

John H. Youngkin married in 1842 to Eliza Jane Cable (?Coble) b 1823 in Tennessee. Though both John and Eliza Jane died rather young, they also left a large family of children. They are buried on the land where they lived, which is now the Crab Orchard National Wildlife Refuge.

Lewis Washington Youngkin, son of John H. and Eliza Jane, married Susan Ann Penland, of Tennessee, on 31 May 1878. Two children were born to this union. Harry Lewis Youngkin was born 8 Jul 1879 and Daisy Youngkin was on the way when Lewis W. died from a fever on 11 Aug 1880 at 31 years of age.

Terry Lloyd Youngkin

Susan then married Terry Lloyd Youngkin, Lewis Younkin's brother, and they had several children. Sometime after this they started spelling the name Younkin.

Harry Lewis Youngkin, Lewis and Susan's son, married Emma Holder and they settled in West Frankfort, Illinois. Three children were born to this union. They had two daughters, Beulah Younkin and Gladys Younkin. They also had a son Victor Harold "Vick" Younkin who married Stella May Isaacs of Thompsonville, Illinois. Two daughters were born to this union — Margaret "June" Younkin and Patsy Ann "Pat" Younkin.

On December 21, 1951 at 41 years of age, Victor died in the June Younkin married Robert L. Sanders. Three children were born to this union: David Spencer Saunders, Karen Elaine Sanders and Diane Lynne Sanders. Karen and Diane reside in West Frankfort, Illinois.

David Saunders married Patti Hodge. They have one son, David Eric Sanders, and now live in Whittington, Illinois.

Pat Younkin married Ronald Dean Chance. Three children were born to this union: Bruce Alan Chance, Gregory Dean "Greg" Chance and Ronda Ann Chance.

Bruce Chance married Tamra "Tammy" Shelton. They have two sons: Joshua Alan Chance and Trenton Thomas Chance. They reside in West Frankfort, Illinois.

Greg Chance married Glenda Johnston. They lived in Fairview Heights, Illinois.

Ronda Chance married Kevin Conaughty. They have one daughter, Kristin Michelle Conaughty and one son, Brandon Michael Conaughty. They reside in West Frankfort, Illinois.

Love Letter from John Dietz Younkin To Marietta Victoria King

Contributed by MARIETTA YOUNKIN SHOWALTER

The following letter was given to the newsletter by Marietta (Younkin) Huffman Showalter. She writes: "I am sending you copies of my grandfather's (John Dietz Younkin) letter which he wrote to my Grandmother in 1860, a year before they were married — pretty romantic! I made two copies, one verbatim, the other my interpretation. I don't remember hearing how much schooling my Grandfather received, probably not too much. I was told that my Grandmother did some teaching in Indiana before they were married in 1861, and this may have connection with the one word in the last paragraph that I had trouble figuring out. As nearly as I can tell, the word is exhibition." John Dietz¹ Younkin (Samuel², Jacob², Henrich¹) was born 6 Oct 1837 in Cincinnati, Hamilton co, Ohio. He married 1 May 1862 in Lafayette, Tippicanoe co, IN. Marietta Victoria King, born 1 Apr 1840, daughter of Stephen and Harriet (DeWitt) King.

Sunday Evening May 20th 1860

Dear Marritta

Your most kind letter came to hand yesterday and it was read with mutch pleasure and I now take the favor of returning chat with you by the way of writing as it was just two weeks last evening that I was with you in person and it seems almost like an age to me But I recon you would not thank me to come many times and keep you up all night But I thought you would not think hard as we did not see another every day if I don rong you must excuse me this time and I wont do so anymore now concerning that talk that was past between me and Charley I think that he will have the blame of that to bare as it was hime that started the conversation I will tell you all about it after we get in the wagon Charley spoke to me and wanted me to go back he would stay with Miss Nelson and I was to stay with you and I let on like I did not like to stay him not knowing that I was up the night before I dont think it would don very well for us to stayed up two nights hand runing as for my part I could have stood it verry well But I thought it would not be right to keep you up another night But Charley went on a good deal about it and he told me that he was bound to try her again you must write and tell me all about it was it so I could be with you this evening we could talke it all over and have quit a chat over it But that is something impossible and as I have mypen in hand my memry rushes back to the many happy hours I have enjoyed in your company and so I am studing over it a little peace of pastry comes in my mind I am thinking of the time darling when first thy hand I pressed. To murmur vows of heartfelt love and clasped thee to my breast our quivering lips in love was met to seal the pledges given and a whispering angel seemed to say your vowes are heard in Heaven

I must bring our chat to a close as it is growing dark One word yet if you have your exebetion you must write and let me know and I will come up

give my best respects to Miss Nelson and except my best wishes

*Your Affectionet
Lover
John*

*Miss Marietta

This family of the Family Record was certified as a true copy of the family Bible by Naomi Grant Daniels on 27 July 1964. Kimberly has not been able to find out who owns the Bible today.

John Younkens married Naomi Carolyn Campbell, daughter of Robert H. and Lavina Campbell, on 27 Dec 1876. John was on oil producer. John was the son of William Michael and Sarah (Hawk) Younkens, grandson of Michael and Mary (Locke) Younkens of Westmoreland and Armstrong counties in Pennsylvania. Michael was born in 1788 in Pennsylvania. It is not known who Michael's father is only that he came to Westmoreland county from Easton, Northampton co, PA. Which is, of course, just north of Bucks county and Easton is an area where many members of our Junghen family settled.

The Family of Henry & Betsy Weimer Younkin

The following article appeared in the Younkin Family News Bulletin, 10 Aug 1939, it was written and submitted by Edith Susan Lichliter.

Henry J. Younkin, second son of Jacob and Hannah (Nicola) Younkin, married in 1811, Elizabeth ["Betsy"] Weimer, daughter of Frederick Weimer Jr., and Barbara (Harbaugh) Weimer. Issue: (1) Rachel, (2) David, (3) Phoebe, (4) Sally, (5) Susan, (6) Mary (Polly), (7) Catherine, (8) and (9) died in infancy), (10) Ann.

(1) Rachel married Harmon Husband and settled in Illinois. Some of the descendants of this family can be found around Ava, Illinois.

(2) David married Marie Culver of Somerset County, where he always resided. Issue: Fremont of Somerset and Benton of Rockwood, still living; Elias, Augusta Evans, Lucina, Ann Elder, Josephine Curot[te], Louise McNeill.

(3) Phoebe married John Boucher and settled in Jackson County, Ill. One son, Harmon (deceased). Some of his family can be found in Jackson County, Ill.

(4) Sally married Henry Whipkey and settled in Jackson County, Ill. Two daughters, Kate and Lucy. Some of their descendants live in Grand Tower, Ill.

(5) Susan married John C. Lichliter, son of Jacob and Jemima (Campbell) Lichliter. Issue: Henry H. His son and daughter reside in Jackson County, Ill.

Levi Lichliter — His children and families reside in Salisbury, Pa.

Almira Lichliter Boucher, a daughter, Miss Elsie, lives in the old home in Salisbury. Three sons and another daughter survive.

(6) Mary (Polly) married John Knable of Somerset, Pa. Mary Colburn and Ida Hoblitzell, Mrs. H. H. DeLong and Mrs. Louise Mason of Somerset are daughters of Mary Knable Colburn.

(7) Katharine married a Mr. Luddington and their descendants live in Iowa.

(8) Ann married Neal McNeil and settled in Monona County, Iowa. Their surviving children are: Harriet, Mary, Elizabeth Heath and Levi, all of Onawa, Iowa.

This has been copied and compiled in a condensed form by a direct descendant of the above Henry J. Younkin and additional information will be given for the asking.

Edith Susan Lichliter

The following is a history of Henry and Betsy that has been passed down to Mary (McNeill) Auffhammer. Her father McNeill⁷ Sherman (Pearl Maud⁶ (McNeill) Sherman, Henry Laughlin⁵ McNeill, Ann Maria⁴ (Younkin) McNeill, Henry³ Younkin, Jacob² Younkin, Henrich¹ Junghen) and his wife Andree were at last summer's reunion.

Henry Younkin b. 1789 Somerset Co. Pa., d. 12 Jun 1837 Upper Turkeyfoot Twp, Somerset Co. Pa.

He married 7 May 1911 Somerset Co. Pa. Elizabeth "Betsy" Weimer, b 10 Aug 1794 Milford Twp, Somerset Co. Pa, daughter of Frederick Weimer and Barbara Harbaugh.

"Oral History: Henry had a drinking problem, which Betsy didn't approve of. The problem must have caused her a great deal of grief, because she stated sometime before her death that she didn't want to be buried by Henry. After her death she was buried across the road from him in the other section of the Younkin Cemetery in Upper Turkeyfoot Township."

[Actually Henry is buried in what is today often called the Brougher Cemetery (though most of the burials were Younkins!) and Betsy is buried in the Younkin Cemetery in Paddytown at Eldon Sechler's farm.]

In a future issue, I would like to complete the work on this family. If you have any information on the descendants of Henry and Betsy (Weimer) Younkin, I would appreciate it if you would submit it to the newsletter. I am also wondering if anyone has any photographs of the early lines for this family

The Family of Joseph & Elizabeth Youngkin

Joseph⁴ Youngkin, the son of David³ Youngkin (Henry Jr², Henrich¹) and Susannah was born 1 Jan 1830 in Cambria or Clearfield co. PA. Though his obituary stated he was born in Franktown, he grew up in the area of White Township in Cambria County. When his father David died in 1874, the estate records indicate that David's 222-acre tract of land was "situated partly in Reade twp. (formerly White twp.) Cambria county, and partly in Baccaria, Clearfield county."

On 16 Sept 1852, Joseph married Elizabeth Jane Smith Larahama, Indiana co. PA. She was born 22 Mar 1829 in Glenhope, Clearfield co. PA. Though Elizabeth's father's given name is unknown, census records indicate he was born in New Jersey, and her mother, maiden name of Hoover, was born in Maryland.

Joseph and Elizabeth began their married life in Pennsylvania. The 1860 census of White twp., Cambria co. PA shows this record of their family:

Joseph YOUNGKIN, age 30, farmer, real estate valued at $800, personal property valued at $400, born PA. Wife: Elizabeth, age 30, born PA; Children: David, age 6; Anson, age 4; John, age 2; Lizzie, age 8 months. The next family on the ceus is Joseph's father David Youngkin.

By the mid 1860s, Joseph and Elizabeth had decided to move west along with a number of other family members. They first settled in Scott county, Iowa where they remained until about 1871 when they moved to Jasper county, Iowa, and purchased a farm near Kellogg. Their next move was to Sully, also in Jasper county, where they lived until Elizabeth's death on 1 Jun 1909.

After her death, Joseph went to live with his daughter, Mrs. Eliza Meloy, and her family in Des Moines, Iowa, where he died on the 22nd of February 1924. Both Joseph and Elizabeth are buried in Woodland Cemetery in Lynnvile, Jasper county, Iowa.

Joseph had been a member of the I.O.O.F. fraternity and was one of the oldest members of the organization at the time of his death. He was also a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Children of Joseph and Elizabeth (SMITH) YOUNGKIN:

- xi. Colfax C. Youngkin, b 1870 in Scott co, IA, died in infancy.

[Note: some family histories states there is also a daughter, Susan Jane Youngkin, b 16 Jul 1854; d in Bussey, Marion co, IA, who married W. J. Smith. They had a daughter Sadie Smith who married Cy Kerr. But checking the 1860 census there is no child such as this. It may be that she was born later, but I have not been able to confirm this child. — DYL]

FIFTH GENERATION

1 David S.⁵ YOUNGKIN (Joseph⁴, David³, Henry² Jr, Henrich¹) b 25 Jul 1853 White twp Cambria co PA; d 12 Jun 1928 Moorhead, Monona co, IA; buried Spring Valley Cemetery, Moorhead. The following is from his obituary in the Moorhead newspaper, 21 June 1928:

Tuesday afternoon, the town of Moorhead was startled at the sudden call of Mr. Youngkin to relinquish his hold on life. He was engaged with waiting on a customer, when the summons came, and in a few moments he passed into the great beyond.

My Quest

By JOHN FITZGERALD

Ever since I can remember I have known that I was adopted. I have seen television shows and heard people talk about being upset because they found out they were adopted. This has always amazed and even upset me. My feeling is that my Mother showed the greatest act of love that she could by giving us up for adoption so we could have a better chance at a healthy and productive life.

Over the years I have thought about my birth parents and wondered what they were like. I also knew that I had two half brothers, and thought that I would like to meet them. It was as if I had a small piece of me missing that kept gnawing at me, eating away until I had to see what I could find out about my missing "family." The following is the story of my search. Maybe it will motivate another adoptee to pursue their heritage.

My adopted parents, William "Bill" and Grace Fitzgerald, have never kept anything from me. They have answered all my questions to the best of their ability and memory. This was very helpful. I knew that my birth name was Douglass Francis Coleman, and I was born in Charlestown, Jefferson co, West Virginia, on Sept. 24, 1955. I have a twin brother, Dennis Joseph Fitzgerald (born: Joseph Samuel Coleman) that was adopted by the same loving family. My mother was possibly living in Knoxville, Frederick co, Maryland at the time of my birth. I went up to Knoxville in 1981 and ripped the page of "Coleman" out of the phone book. I then called or visited all of them. I was told by everyone I spoke to that they were sorry but they could not help me. This frustrated me and for 13 years I did nothing else.

Then in March of this year I felt I had to look again. This time I started by calling the Court House in Upper Marlboro, Maryland and contacted the Vital Statistics office to request any medical information I was allowed to have. I was told that my adoption was handled by a private adoption agency and they had no medical information. I was also told that my records were sealed and I could have no information. At that point, I had learned a very important lesson which I used for the duration of my search. DO NOT TELL ANYBODY THAT YOU ARE ADOPTED!

I got lucky on one of my calls. I called the Court House in Charlestown, WV, and asked for a copy of my birth certificate. I told them my name was Douglass Francis Coleman born 9/24/55. I was stunned when she came back on the phone and told me she had it. I, as calmly as I could, asked if she would mail be a copy, and she said she would. Three days later it arrived in the mail. I couldn't wait to open it and see what new information I now had.

It stated that my father's name was Samuel Irwin Coleman and that he was from Virginia and my mother's name was Frances Juanita Younkens Coleman and she was from Maryland. It also said that there were three births before me. Now I was confused. My adopted parents only knew of two other boys.

Armed with my parent's complete names and the areas where they were born, I went to the National Archives in Washington, D.C. and looked in the 1920 census for any Younkens family that had a young daughter named Frances J. This took some time but it paid off. I found a record for a John Christian & Grace M. Younkens who appeared to possibly be my grandparents.

Next I called information to see what papers were in existence in 1955. I then called the "Spirit of Jefferson Advocate" to request any birth announcements for my birth date. They told me that the papers for that time period were not available. That didn't stop me. I then called all the college libraries in the area. Shepardstown College found it and sent it to me.

My next step was to call a company called "Find People Fast" and requested a complete list of all Younkens and any Coleman with the first name Samuel. When I received the list, I typed a form letter and started sending copies to the states that were close. My first mailing was 30 Colemans and 30 Younkens. I received no usable information from this mailing. My next mailing was for 100 Younkens and 35 Colemans. This mailing hit pay dirt. I received many calls but the most useful one was from a Thomas Younkens in Wheaton, Maryland, who said he could not give me any information but he knew of a woman named "Donna Younkens Logan" who has been doing family research for a long time and might possibly be able to help me some. He gave me her number, and I called her on a Saturday morning. I explained what I was doing and asked if she could help. I gave her all of the information I had gathered including the name of the person I thought might be my grandfather. Within an hour she called me back. She told me that if I was correct about the grandfather, then she was sorry but my mother had died 9 years previously. She told me I had two half brothers and gave me their names and "last known" addresses which were a couple years old.

We talked for a while about the Younkens family and its history. Then I thanked her for the information and hung up.

This was May 3, 1994, the end of many hours of loving work. I had so many feelings of excitement and jubilation. I had an adrenaline rush that you wouldn't believe. I think that anyone who has done something like this knows what I am talking about.

My next step was to call information looking for a phone number of my oldest brother, Donald Pace, who lived in Goose Creek, SC. The operator told me it was an unpublished number. Next I tried Florida information for the other brother, Mark Pace. This time she had a number. I was so excited I had to wait a few minutes and compose myself before I could call. I didn't know what to expect when I picked up the phone to call. What if he didn't know anything about me; or if my information was wrong; or, if he just hung up on me?

My Quest

When a man answered the phone I asked him if his name was Mark? When he said it was, I said, "I don't know how to say this but I have very good information and a reason to believe that you are my half brother." My heart stopped when he said, "I'm sorry but there is no way." It took a second, but I told him that I was confident of my research and could I please tell him what I knew, and then he could tell me where I went wrong. He agreed. I proceeded to tell him my birth name, mother and father's names, place of birth ... he stopped me mid-sentence and said, after a pause, that I had found my family.

Even now as I type this I still get choked up and watery-eyed when I think back on this moment. I told him that I thought that I had two half brothers. He said, "no," I have a third, Chris Russell, who was also adopted out. He lives in Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

We talked for a while. He filled me in on my family and my mother. It upsets me to know that 13 years ago I was only a couple miles from my mother, but was looking for the wrong name. She would still have been alive at this time. If only I had pursued it at that time with the intensity that I did this time, I would have been able to meet her.

She had remarried to a man named Jack Bingham, who still lives in Knoxville. Similar things happened on the next two phone calls but basically it was all very exciting.

I now have my family history, although I am still learning more and more. I will continue to search for my father, but so far I have not had much luck.

The important thing is that now I have contact with my brothers, after 39 years — and it is wonderful! We are planning a reunion in Tennessee in August.

This is a rather condensed version of my story, but should help show that if you put forth the effort you can locate your family. I wholeheartedly encourage anyone to try to find their birth parents, birth children or lost brothers and sisters.

Their are two books which I found useful in my search:
How to Find Anyone, Anywhere and Search, An Adoptee Guide. Remember, do not mention that you are adopted or normally kind people suddenly slam the door on you or hang up. Isn't it amazing that a complete stranger can get your life history, but you are not entitled to any information because the records are sealed to protect the child — well, in this case,
I am that child and I find this unacceptable.

*John Douglas Fitzgerald
born: Douglass Francis Younkins Coleman*

Addendum — John is also the nephew of Nellie (Fitzgerald)
Youngkin, who many of our cousins met at the 1992 Youngkin reunion in Somerset. Nellie's late husband was in the Henry Jr. line, and John's birth mother, Frances (Younkins) Coleman was from the Frederick county, MD, line which is believed to be from Henry Jr.'s brother, Rudolph Youngkin. This obviously makes John and his Youngkin cousins (Nellie's children) blood line cousins as well.

'Twas a Day Before Reunion

By LARRY "I.M.A.Y" LOGAN

*'Twas a day before reunion
And throughout Somerset,
Creatures were 'a stirring,
Many relatives we've met.*

*Family group sheets were hung
At the Ramada reception
So to look up the dates of Births, deaths, and conceptions.*

*The children were running
And spilling their drinks,
While the elders viewed albums
With smiles, laughs and winks.*

*And Donna in her T-shirt,
And I in my cap,
We passed out the buttons,
And graveyard tour maps.*

*And out in the lobby
There arose such a clatter,
I ran from the reception,
To see what was the matter.*

*The commotion was harmless,
Kids, Mrs., and Misters,
It was just the late arrival
Of all Donna's sisters.*

*Then dinners were eaten
In shifts, and at tables
Pushed together so that
The staff was not able—*

*To reach for the dishes
Without many passes.
(They remembered the serving Of last year's Younkin masses.)*

*When what to my wondering
Eyes should appear,
But a miniature Ron Younkin,
From OHIO, and hear...*

*With his dark framed glasses
And white hair's hue,
I thought I was looking At Phil Donahue.*

*And then I saw Tom,
Who had driven from Ashland,
With so many coffee cups
Jammed into his old van.*

More Younkins they came,
And I whistled, and shouted
And called them by name.*

*Hi Nesta and Olive!
Dick, Mildred and Julie...
Hello to you Barbara,
Diana and Angie.*

*What's happening Bessie,
Ray, Ellen and Glenn?
Yo' Avis and Aaron, Mark, Randy and Jen.*

*Marilyn, Oma,
Kay, Edward and Bill
Charles and Harold,
John, Dolly and Jill.*

*And so many more, came
By plane, bus and car.
That in order to meet all,
We went to the bar.*

*We talked, danced and drank
(But not in those orders),
The band played it's last set,
And we went to our quarters.*

*Reunions are fun, but
The night before party,
Can exhaust and expire
All save the hardy.*

*But it's only a once a year
Thing with these Younkins'.
(If they had it on Halloween
We could all carve pumpkins.)

*So send in your sign ups,
July 'll be here soon,
If out of town "reservate"
Early for your room.*

*And spring to your sleigh
(Or your car) give a whistle,
And away you will fly
Like the down of a thistle.*

*To drive 'yours' to Somerset,
And then on to Kingwood
Where the sight of those Younkins
Will sure make you feel good.*

*So I'll end it right here,
As my rhymes become trite,
"Happy Reunion to all,
And to all a good night!"*

So what else rhymes with Younkins?
See you all at the reunion!*

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year

to all our

Younkin Cousins

Dear Cousins,

It's been an interesting, and crazy year for Larry and me. We have finally moved — and it took nearly a year to do it! As many of you know, we put our house in Thurmont on the market in February of 1994. It took until October to obtain an acceptable contract of sale.

As soon as we put the house on the market, we started looking around for a new home. We took several trips just trying to decide where we wanted to locate — North and South Carolina, Florida, West Virginia and several other places. Each having advantages and disadvantages — we finally decided that they were all just too far away from our families. Then we started looking in Pennsylvania (where so much of my research has been over the past several years!).

But the real estate market being what it has been the past year, we finally came to the realization that a sale might not happen for quite a while. So we put our investigative trips on hold and continued to show the house. You can imagine what that has been like with genealogy from one end of the house to the other and cleaning up for each showing. (We had lots of lookers!). Just as I would get everything out to either work on the newsletter or try to help someone with their genealogy, the Realtor would call and want to show the house and everything had to be put away again.

Then, late-October we received a contract, and as you might have guessed, we had no idea where we wanted to go! Goodness, we had to hustle. We accepted the contract, and immediately began looking in earnest again for a new place. We spent several weeks on a daily basis going from town to town in Pennsylvania (housing costs are somewhat lower there). We needed a lot of space and Larry isn't much on "Handyman Specials," so we didn't have a lot of choices. Then...we just happened on an ad for a house with five bedrooms and three offices in "immaculate" condition and — in our price range! (It sounded too good to be true). But, just as Dorothy said in the Wizard of Oz... "there's no place like home," we had found our house — in Maryland!

Unfortunately, we weren't able to coincide the moves. To meet the end of November settlement date, we moved our household into a large storage unit. Larry's mom, in Walkersville, Maryland, was good enough to take us in until after Christmas. The week between Christmas and New Years, we spent moving in. At this point everything is unpacked but very little has been put away!

Our new home is in Hancock, Maryland [10 West Main Street] and overlooks the historic C & O Canal and the Potomac River. It's a great old house, built around the turn of the century and has lots of character. We're very excited to finally have enough space to work (and organize our files!). But probably most importantly we now have enough room to say... "please come for a visit!" We have two spare bedrooms for company (something Larry and I have never had). We're just off the major commuter routes for anyone traveling East or West. So the next time you're driving by we hope you'll drop in. — Cousin Donna

Mr. Waters, banker, dies at 103

William L. Waters — 103, of 9369 Myersville Rd, Myersville, MD, died Tuesday, Sept. 27, at Washington County Hospital in Hagerstown.

He was the husband of Altie Maud (Younkins) Waters, whom he married in 1915. She died Aug. 20, 1971.

Born Nov. 18, 1890, in the old farmhouse where he resided, he was a son of the late James Kinna and Laura (Leatherman) Waters.

Mr. Waters was a lifelong farmer. He attended the Koogle School on Old Hagerstown Rd, and spent one semester at Bridgewater College in Virginia. He was a member of Myersville Church of the Brethren.

Mr. Waters was a director of Myersville Bank from 1921 to 1993. The bank was organized in 1898 and located in a store; in 1902 it moved to a two story building on main Street with its false bell and tower which was used for 70 years. In the early years George Bittle was president and Mr. Waters served as vice president. He became president in 1955, and served in that capacity until 1973. In 1973, he was instrumental in planning the bank's new location with Charles Martin, anticipating growth from I-70. Upon moving to the present location Mr. Waters served as chairman of the board until his retirement in 1993. He was active until the time of his death.

Surviving are four children, Miriam W. Kopp of Myersville, Rachel W. Warfield of Mount Airy, Jean W. Sandifer of Lexington, KY, and Calvin C. Waters of Myersville; six grandchildren; and one great grandchild.

Interment was in the Lutheran Cemetery, Middletown, with the Rev. Golda McClelland, his pastor, officiating.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Donna Younkin Logan,

Both my cousin Norman Getchell of Fontana, California, and Yonkin researcher Roger Yonkin have suggested I write to you as I'm having difficulty in finding the first Yonkin in my line to come to America.

After the untimely death of my parents, I was cared for by my maternal grandparents — Joseph Eddy Taylor and Sarah Catherine (Yonkin) Taylor. Grandmother Sarah Catherine was named in honor of her two grandmothers — Sarah Yonkin and Catherine Page Ault. When her various relatives got together, they could all speak German. However, they spoke with different dialects. Grandma also said that the name "Yonkin" had been spelled "Yonken" and was changed due to a miller's mistake on the printing of the grain bags. She always pronounced her maiden name as in "yonder," not as in "Younger" — short "o", not short "u."

Her father William Yonkin was born 1824 in Pennsylvania — possibly in Columbian Twp. which may have been in Lycoming County. He married Margaret Ault in 1847, their first born was Christie Ann — 11 Nov 1848 — born in Lycoming County near the town of Muncy. He drove one of two covered wagons to Illinois — the other was driven by the Ault family. His son Henry was born en route in Indiana 11 Oct 1850. Another son, William Edward (Great Uncle Ed) was born in Illinois — the grandfather of Norman Getchall. All the other children were girls whose given names were Rebecca, Josephine, and of course, Christie Ann and Sarah Catherine.

Grandma told me that William had three brothers who remained in Pennsylvania when he migrated to Illinois in 1850: John of Clarkstown, Pa, whose children were Josephine and Harry; Elisha, father of Mary Young; and Elijah who had a terrible temper. In an old photograph, John's daughter's name is written "Younkin" on the back — which may have been the photographer's handwriting.

Great Uncle Henry's son Guy Yonkin had two sons. Only Milan William had a son named William Harwood Yonkin. He would be about 53 years old if he is still alive. Last time I was in touch was at a California, Los Angeles area, address.

I claim a Henry Yonkin as my great grandfather's father and have reconstructed a Family Group Record which I shall enclose. I did this from U. S. Census Records of Pennsylvania and have briefly shown the statistics found on the back. In 1860 the family name was YONKIN; in 1850 — YOUNKIN. In the earlier years, I could only guess which Yunkin, Yonken, etc., family fit the best. I believe the first immigrants had a German name which sounded like the various spellings and that all the Yonkins, Younkins, etc. may have come from the same area in Germany and some of them were probably related. What the immigration authorities and the census takers did to some of the non-English names is quite interesting.

In your opinion, what was the German name? Jongking or what? I've searched many, many early passenger lists and find nary a Yonkin or Younkin.

Also what port of entry and at about what date did your ancestors arrive?

Are your roots also in Pennsylvania? If not, which colony or state?

My guess is that the Henry Yonkin I claim as my great, great grandfather was the son of the man who first came to America as a German immigrant.

I would like to think that my sharing my Yonkin/Younkin ancestry with you might add to your knowledge of this surname, but fully realize that your research had been extensively on the name "Younkin." Well, perhaps, you've found it a bit interesting if not valuable. I would greatly appreciate hearing from you at your convenience.

If there is anything I could do for you in regard to your research, please tell me. I've been shaking the family tree for years and have succeeded in finding the first ancestor to come to America in several of the lines.

I have been in touch (way back in 1973) with a Mrs. Kuhn of Rogers, Arkansas, whose father was Leon George Younkin born in Riverside, Iowa. At the time, she wrote that cousins living in Fayetteville, Arkansas knew more than she about the Younkin family history.

Then as my husband and I travel from Illinois to Colorado or even to Ohio and Florida (where our children live), I always check out the local 'phone books. Younkin isn't a very common name, is it! I did find some in Fort Morgan, Colorado — Blanche at 522 Devel and Clarence at 631 Maple. I inquired, but there was no answer.

Then, just this year I found a few listed in Nebraska:

Younkin, Aleda, C. M., Gary, Steve, and Walker — all in Minden, NE.

Back to Myra Younkin Kuhn, [she said] "I remember reading where the Younkin family published their own newspaper about family reunions and that there were famous Younkin twins over 100 years old." [Editors note: It's interesting that Mrs. Kuhn remembered the newsletter and the Younkin twins, as that story did run in an old issue of the Younkin Family News Bulletin. And as well, I reprinted the article awhile back with the twin's pictures. The twins, Eli⁴ Younkin and Margaret (Younkin) Black, were the youngest of John³ (Rudolph², Henrich¹) and Margaret (Trout) Younkin's 14 children. They were born in 1845 and both died in 1937. This Mrs. Myra (Younkin) Kuhn, born about 1906, is also from the Rudolph line (Myra⁶, Leon George⁵, William R.⁴, Samuel³, Rudolph², Henrich¹) — DYL]

It is indeed fascinating to "step into the shoes" of our ancestors and I do consider myself very fortunate to run into someone like you who has been described as the Younkin family expert.

Sincerely,
Hazel Clauter

1001 Meadows Rd, Geneva, IL 60134

(See my reply on Page 6)

Letter to the Editor

Dear Hazel,

I am not too sure about the expert title, but I'll try to help with with what information I have. I suppose I have the largest collection of Younkin family information available, but that's only because a lot of people have been actively researching this family's history for close to a century now. It continues to grow each day because people like you have provided me with your part of the family puzzle.

Now, about your family line. I can't tell you for sure what it is but in addition to what Norman Getchell has sent me, I have a little data on your line.

Your grandfather, William Yonkin, died 6 Sep 1913 in Mayfield twp, DeKalb Co, IL. His death certificate (which I ordered last spring from the DeKalb county courthouse) says he was born 14 Aug 1824 in Pennsylvania and had lived in Illinois for 62 years. It also says his father was Henry Yonkin and that Henry was also born in Pennsylvania (the space for the mother's name and birthplace is blank on the certificate). If your birth year for Henry of 1793 is correct, your family was probably living in Pennsylvania in 1793. Your data sheet also gives Henry's wife's name as "Sarah," and that they lived in Lycoming County, Pennsylvania (Muncy area).

I would be very curious where the last two pieces of information originated — the name Sarah and the Lycoming reference — was it in a family record such as a Bible? or was it from oral family tradition?

Either way, I would work with these pieces of the puzzle. I would seek out any records in Pennsylvania with the name "Henry Younkin" (irregardless of the surname spelling!) and pay close attention to any with a wife named Sarah. You didn't mention in your letter if you had investigated the courthouse records in Lycoming County. This would be my first step. I would ask the county clerk to check marriage records for the years 1795 through 1830, Wills and Estate Administrations, and eventually deeds. I would explain to the clerk that because we have such an unusual name she should check all the various spellings — Younkin, Yonkin, Youngkin, etc. Lycoming County was created in 1795 from part of Northumberland County (and Northumberland was created in 1772 from parts of Lancaster, Berks and Cumberland Counties). Thus any records between 1772 and 1795 would be in the Northumberland County Courthouse, after 1795 they would be in Lycoming County.

I have one small clue from some of the research done by other researchers many years ago. The immigrant brother, Herman Junghen (Youngkin), had a son George Younkin who is said to have married Elizabeth Bollinger. George and Elizabeth lived in Chillisquaque Township, Northumberland County, Pa. In Herman's will, written in 1788 in Bucks County, George is given a portion of the legacy if he has any heirs (which tells us that in 1788, when the will was written, George had no children). The 1793 birthdate for your Henry would make this George & Elizabeth a possibility for Henry's parents. In addition, the close proximity of Chillisquaque Township and Muncy would add probability. In the 1850 Census of Chillisquaque, Elizabeth (age 81) is listed as the head of the house so apparently George had died prior to 1850. [George last appears in the Chillisquaque 1840 census.] This is about all that we have on this George and Elizabeth. You might want to check with the Northumberland County Courthouse and see if there is a will or estate administration for him. These documents often name children. If not, I would then check for deeds where he might have sold his property before he died, quite possibly to his children.

You might also want to read the article in this issue on John "Michael" Younkin (page 14) as there may be some clues in it that will help.

I have some information that I have gathered mostly from census and military pensions on the Lycoming County families which I will send you copies of. If you'll let me know how these searches come out, I'll see where we can go from here.

One other item I might mention is the spelling of our last name. I wouldn't worry too much about exact spellings. Anything that even sounds close to Younkin should be checked. In records of the 1700s and early 1800s you also have to check for the Junghen, Jungken, etc. spellings. (usually any similar spelling ending in an "n"). You'll also find references to the Jungker name. But for the most part this name is today Younker (and is not our family). Most of the records you will find on our family were not written by our ancestors they were written by a clerk of the court or a minister — none of whom knew how to spell the name. They usually just spelled it the way it sounded.

In addition to the problem with the public's spelling of our name, we have families where brothers spelled their name differently. So as I said, in doing your search you'll need to get all the records irregardless of the spellings.

You had asked what our port of entry was noting that you had checked the passenger lists for Younkin. You didn't find any because at that point the family still had the German spelling of Junghen. These families can be found in several published lists of immigrants to the Port of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and I have also had them in recent issues of the newsletter complete with their own signature lines.

And, of course, I am sure if any of our cousins out there can shed any light on your line, they will also write to you.

Sincerely,
Cousin Donna

Estate Records of Herman Junghen — Filed 10 June 1788
of Nockamixon Township, Bucks County, Pennsylvania
Estate #2158

In recent issues of the YFNB I ran the wills for Herman and Henrich "Henry" Junghen/Youngkin. This article offers a listing of the Inventory of Herman's estate at the time of his death. Because this is a handwritten document, some of the words are difficult to read. But I am going to print this exactly as it was written including all of the spelling errors. You will want to read this list phonetically as that will be the only way to figure out what some of the words mean.

Moses Younkin...

The Rest of the Story

by NATHAN FUQUA

As the publisher of our family newsletter, I have often wondered what articles might spark an interest in our readers, causing them to perhaps delve a little deeper into the subject matter. With the recent publication of the Civil War letters from Moses Younkin to his wife Lavila, just such a spark was ignited. Nathan Fuqua, of El Sobrante, California, decided to develop an article that would provide more of the historical settings and sequences that were mentioned in Moses' letters. I feel he has done an excellent job and hope you will enjoy his work. A special thanks also to Roger Mall for providing, through his recent research, a copy of Moses' Company History.

The Civil War letters of Moses Younkin are restrained and have a matter-of-fact tone except for the later letters. A number of factors could explain his restraint, not the least of which may be that it was his way of reassuring a worried wife and because he may have perceived himself as simply doing a job which was to end one day. The "large histories" of the Civil War have as little to say about the campaign in which Moses participated as did Moses. Nevertheless, the campaign had its own significance with respect to its objectives: to re-establish telegraph and land communication in the northern plains and to deal with the increasingly aggressive hostile Indians of the region. The scale of hardship and battle casualties was certainly less than that experienced by the soldiers at Fredericksburg or The Wilderness. Yet, Moses and his comrades had their own special problems. Their enemy did not acknowledge the formalities of mid-nineteenth century warfare. Horses and supplies were not as readily available as in the east (though Moses assures Lavila, "[they] are well provisioned").

The western soldier did suffer from commanders who were as incompetent as the politically appointed officers in the east. At the end of the war in the east, the western volunteers were not sent home as they expected. They did not know when they would be allowed to go home. Mutiny was an alternative. During the week of May 23, 1865, while the troops of Generals Sherman and Grant paraded in review in Washington D. C., Moses' company and the 11th Kansas Volunteer Regiment were assigned where it was "a lonely place to soldier", enduring cold Wyoming nights and within sight of the enemy.

Demand for soldiers on the eastern battlegrounds had reduced to about three hundred the number of Federal troops available to patrol and guard the Great Plains against possible Confederate incursions and the increasing number of attacks by Indians. Hostilities between whites and Indians beginning in the 1850s increased during the Civil War, with the Indians gaining the advantage. By the summer of 1864, Indian raids forced the closure of the Overland Trail. Mail for Denver had to be shipped to San Francisco by way of the Isthmus of Panama, then sent overland by stage. The Union was losing control of supply routes and communication to the West. Federal troops were needed to remedy the situation.

In the winter of 1864-65, the 11th Kansas Volunteer Cavalry (KVC), having recently assisted in pushing old Sterling Price and his lads across the Arkansas River, was ordered to Ft. Riley. Nine companies (A, B, D, F, H, I, K, L, and M) were to be ordered to the North Platte, Dakota Territory to repair lines and guard the telegraph route. C and E companies were to be detached for service to other areas. Moses' company was ordered to Ft. Riley in January 1865 to join the regiment, undoubtedly as a replacement.

The December letters with news from Colorado show a time lag of several weeks between occurrence and letter date. The 20 Dec 1864 reference to "Col. Shipington" was to the infamous Col. Chivington and the "grand Victory" was actually the appalling butchery known as the Sand Creek Massacre (Moses may not have known all of the details of the "battle"). The surviving Southern Cheyennes from Sand Creek made their way north to seek refuge with the hostiles. Their story of Sand Creek was to further enrage the northern tribes. The expected cavalry reinforcements from Colorado may have been Chivington and his ninety-day volunteer militia whose term of service would have expired at about the time of Moses' letter. He alludes to raids on supply trains, but bolder and more devastating raids were to occur before his next letter.

On January 7, 1865, a thousand or more Cheyennes and Sioux raided Julesburg. One of the depredations committed there might have brought a tear from Moses, if not outrage. The Indians found the payroll box abandoned by the recently arrived Army Paymaster who with everyone else at Julesburg raced like hell to Ft. Rankin (about a mile away) upon seeing the approach of the Indians. Many of the Indians knew about money and its uses. However, one did not know about greenbacks. He chopped up a bundle or two and threw the pieces up in the air like a playful child. (This crude, but effective, form of currency contraction would have delighted eastern bankers of the time.) Another warrior, George Bent (son of William Bent and his Cheyenne wife) knew about greenbacks and took as many bundles as he could carry. Less than half of the payroll was recovered. Julesburg was virtually destroyed in a second raid. It was at this time that the Army hastened to serious action.

Dispatches to Department Headquarters identified the hostiles as Arapahoe, Cheyenne, Oglalla, Brulé, Minneconjou, Dakota and others. Orders were issued to send the 11th KVC to the North Platte on January 18th (about the time Moses' company joined the regiment). The march to the north was delayed because of a lack of horses for the cavalry and insufficient winter provisions. (General Grenville Dodge, Dept. Commander, was said to have remarked in later years that "the 11th KVC lost thirteen men from freezing".) The 11th and Moses' company left Ft. Riley on Feb. 20, under the command of Lt. Col. P. B. Plumb.

The letter of March 21 describes succinctly conditions in the area: "awful destruction...and a great many lives lost." At about this time a couple of captured women in pathetic condition were ransomed back from the Indians. The "Ranekes" of the letter refers to the ranches located on the trail routes. Ranches served as retail establishment, Saloon, coach station and, if near an army post, as gambling den and bordello. The letters of March 21 and June 4 are interesting for the stark contrast of mood and attitude.

In March, Moses is almost buoyant. He expresses confidence and determination and notes that "the soldiers are in good spirits." The optimism continues in the letter of April 6, aided by the rumor of a peace treaty with the Indians and the news from Richmond. By June, however, Moses conveys bitterness and resentment: "the regiment is...dissatisfied with the Commanders of the District. We have been shamefully treated by them"; the number of Indians and their depredations are not half as bad as represented and "we should [have] been on our way home if they had not misrepresented things generally." Several incidents occurred to bring about the change which was not unique to Moses and the 11th KVC.

The rumor of peace with the Indians was false. They were more defiant and determined than ever. They knew the territory. Warfare was second nature to them. Their tactics were that of the guerilla which was unfamiliar to the officers and men who were accustomed to formal Civil War tactics. Among the Indians were Red Cloud and an up-and-coming warrior called Crazy Horse. Good news from the east was to be an ironic blow to the morale of the soldiers. The soldiers believed that their enlistment was terminated when they learned of Lee's surrender to Grant. The Civil War was over, so was their part in the fighting, they believed. However, the men were ordered to remain and fight Indians. The men of Moses' regiment seemed to have complied with orders at the time. Men of other units were more defiant.

At Ft. Laramie, the 16th KVC refused orders to advance to the Indian territory (as part of the futile and disastrous Powder River Expedition). General Patrick Edward Conner ordered up artillery loaded with grape and had the guns brought to bear on the mutinous regiment (Gen. Washington took similar action for similar reasons during the Revolution). The mutiny ended, the soldiers probably cursing the general and insulting his ancestry ever after. A soldier of the 16th wrote to his wife that some of his comrades hoped for action as an opportunity to deal with the officers.

The soldier's belief that the number of Indians was misrepresented by commanders may be best exemplified by the Wind River Expedition. This expedition was the brain-storm of a Col. Moonlight, commander at Ft. Laramie. On May 8, the nine companies of the 11th were ordered to assemble at the Platte Bridge (now Casper, Wyoming) to join the expedition. The men marched at night in winter conditions and on a bad diet (some dropped out from scurvy). One man described the expedition as "nine days of hard marching on short feed, snow nearly every night and did not see an Indian or a fresh trail." The Indians had been there. They led the soldiers on, then melted away to attack elsewhere.

In July, several companies of the 11th Regiment were involved in the Battle of Platte Bridge. Heavy casualties were taken. During this month, discipline began to break down in the dispersed companies and mutiny was feared. Reports sent to General Dodge attributed the breakdown to the dispersement, resulting in non-commissioned officers being placed in command of units. The reports further stated that Col. Moonlight, who had been sacked earlier for his incompetence but not removed from the area, was stirring up dissatisfaction among the soldiers by spreading misinformation. The regiment was relieved by the 6th Michigan at the end of July and mustered-out at Ft. Leavenworth. Moses and his company left Ft. Halleck on August 13th, arriving at Ft. Leavenworth on Sept. 17th for mustering out.

Moses wrote that he was "thankful to God and his kind care over us." One must wonder if he ever realized how true were his words. The Indians were there — several thousand of them. If the Indians had been organized and accepted discipline, (as they were to do to a better degree in the near future) they could have inflicted catastrophic casualties upon those men. A year later, the same Indians did improve their organizing and cooperative abilities in warfare. They held hostage three military posts on the Bozeman Trail and slaughtered (literally) the eighty-man command of Capt. Fetterman near Ft. Phil Kearney. Many of them were to overwhelm Col. Custer and his command in 1876.

Somerset County Younkins welcome cousins

The 1994 Younkin Family Reunion was held July 22, 23, and 24 in Kingwood, Somerset County, Pennsylvania. A special thank you goes to all those who made this reunion a very special event. Unlike past years, this summer's reunion was a "covered dish" luncheon. Thanks to the generosity of our Somerset cousins there was enough home-cooked food to serve an army! That's what I called a "Warm Welcome Home."

Everyone was very generous when it came time to pass the hat to help cover our reunion expenses. You will all be pleased to know that we were able to meet all of our expenses with about $12 left over (which I donated to the headstone fund for the Frederick G. Younkin's Cemetery). Special thanks also go to those who made extra donations towards the reunion: Tom and Evelyn Younkin, as in previous years, made their donation of commemorative reunion mugs for each family attending; Clark Brocht, Alan and Kay Lynn (Younkin) Wilson and Kay's mom and dad, Gerald and Iris Younkin, donated the hamburgers, hot dogs and buns; Bill & Mary Hall for their donation of the stadium blanket door prize; Chuck & Neta Rosendale for their donation of three candy-filled jars for the guessing game; the Everett Sechler family donated the cokes; and the Ralph Henry Jr. family donated our cooking materials. The Blessing was given by Rev. H. Allen Younkin. Many thanks to all of you!

This year the reunion was structured a little differently. We had our family meal at noontime, and the tours were held afterward. And though the coordinator (me!) was terribly disorganized, everyone was very patient and for that I thank you all. I'll try to do better next year.

In addition to our large group picture, we also were able to do something I have always wanted to do — we took a photograph of each individual descendant group, which you'll find on page 12. [It never ceases to amaze me that we all carry the same blood (DNA, etc.) of our Junghen ancestors!]

As you'll see the "Jacob Younkin" group was the largest! Unfortunately, Bob and Freda Steele, who have been to every reunion so far, and Violet Esterman, who has been to two of the reunions, were unable to be with us this year to represent the "Rudolph Younkin" line.

I hope you'll all be with us again next year! —Donna

Younkins Celebrate 60th Anniversary of the First Younkin Reunion

The 1994 Reunion was in celebration of the 60th Anniversary of the first Younkin Family Reunion. This first reunion was held September 2, 1934 at the Kingwood I.O.O.F. Picnic Grove where we still hold it today. Betty (Younkin) & Ray Sanner, of Somerset, Pennsylvania, brought the above picture from their collection of old photographs to this year's reunion. On the back is written "first committee meeting" [of the Younkin reunion]. Though we haven't been able to identify all of the people (maybe some of you can help!), we'll do the best we can. Front row, from left: unknown, William "Bill" Lenhart, unknown. Middle row, from left, Charles --?--, Colwell Younkin, Tom Younkin, David Franklin Younkin. Standing, from left, unknown, unknown, unknown, Otto R. and Mildred Younkin (Tom's parents), unknown (possibly Mrs. Edward Wiley), Otto Younkin's mom Molly (Younkin) Lenhart, unknown, unknown. LINKED BY STATLAN

Baltimore, Maryland — Two of Franklin Square Hospital's employees, both Pennsylvania natives, recently discovered that they are related eight generations back to initial pioneer settlers. Sandy Hudak, Information Systems' Nursing Liason, and Barbara Park, Administrative and Technical Director of Nuclear Medicine both share a common ancestor, Johann Henrich Junghen, who immigrated from Germany to Pennsylvania in the 1700s. Sandy has been on staff here for 9 years and Barbara for 22, but they weren't acquainted with each other and had no interaction until Sandy was promoted to her IS position in Nursing and Barbara volunteered to act as ancillary liason for the new Statlan project. Barbara's maiden name was Younkin and Sandy's great grandfather's last name was Youngkin, both names being an Americanized version of the original German. Barbara is descended from Henrich's first child John, and Sandy is descended from his youngest son, Henry Jr. — submitted by Barbara (Younkin) Park

What's in a Name...

John "Michael" Younkin

At this past summer's reunion, Marlyn Klee-Hartzell and Beverly Palarino (both descendants of this John Younkin) walked up to me and asked one of the hardest questions any Younkin has ever asked. The essence of their question was — where did the Michael in the name John Michael Younkin originate? In other words, what documentary proof is there that is his name. John Michael Younkin was the eldest son of the immigrant Henrich Junghen. Well, I pondered the question a minute and then did what any "red-blooded Younkin" would do in this situation. I told them to go ask Mark Miner. Not that I didn't want to answer their question — but I couldn't! You see, I broke one of the cardinal rules even an amateur genealogist understands — never assume anything. For many years I had received family group sheets from various cousins and nearly all of them had the name "John Michael Younkin" and I just assumed that somewhere along the line, the past researchers had found this "Michael" name on some document or record. Bad assumption!

Well, to make a long story short, Marlyn and Beverly did go ask Mark and I never heard another word about it (whew!) until August 15 when Mark sent me a letter about it. Mark had gone home and re-read all of his correspondence related to this John (much of which goes back to the 1970s). Mark concluded in his letter that the name "John Michael Younkin" was based on an educated guess. The earliest reference Mark could find was a 1976 letter Joseph Thomas, of Pittsburgh, Pa., wrote to Loree Cross:

"We have wondered about the Michael Younkin in the 1790 Census of Bedford (Somerset) County. I don't know if I ever expressed this idea to you, but I think that my ancestor John (brother of your Jacob) was actually John Michael. John named his son Jacob (who was known as Jacob of John) and he named his eldest son John M. — this could very well be John Michael, named for his grandfather. John M.'s sister Catherine who married George Firestone, named her eldest son Michael A. This is conjecture but it very well could explain the 1790 Census..."

In another letter dated 1982 from Mr. Thomas to Major Carl Hoge, he says: "I spent years trying to clarify the information in the 1937 article by Anita Eyster. This particularly bothered me (and you too) as my line came down through the eldest son John. I think that he was John Michael as there was a Michael Younkin in the 1790 census of Bedford County, and the John M. and Michael keep recurring in my line..."

In none of Mr. Thomas letters did he ever say he had proved the John Michael name — he made it clear that it was conjecture based on his research. The unfortunate part of all this is that we (and I was the worst offender) took his conjecture and, to use Mark's words, "promulgated its use."

Actually Mr. Thomas' conjecture is based on very good genealogy practices. Naming patterns in successive generations is an excellent indicator for helping compile families. But other than that there is no proof, that I have seen, of the "Michael" part of his name. I will try to be more careful about this in the future. And I hope that our readers will continue to question everything they read here and continue to let me know if something just doesn't fit.

In response to Mark's August 15th letter, I dug into my own records as well and offer the following thoughts:

First of all, on thinking about it I don't believe his name is John Michael. I think it is probably just plain ole "John". Here are my reasons:

1) The baptism records for Keller's Church in Bucks County give all of Henry and Catharine's children and further research has proved this document correct. (see YFNB Apr, May, June 1991, pg 8). I questioned this church record for a number of years primarily because Henry Jr's baptismal certificate stated that he was born Sunday, October 9, 1768. But on the Bucks County court dockets, his mother, Catharine, signed an affidavit stating that her son would not be 21 years of age until October 9, 1794 and thus could not sell his land to his brother! (see YFNB Research Reports). So I am now inclined to believe that the Keller's Church records are correct and frankly make more sense. Now, what does this have to do with John — on this record his name is given as simply "Johannes" [translated to John] — period! Not Johannes Michael. It was common for Germans to use the name "Johannes" as a first name for all their male children. Such as Johannes Michael, Johannes George or Johannes Jacob. But they were known by what we would call their middle name — Michael, George and Jacob. None of the male children in this church record for Henry and Catharine's children have the name Johannes in front of another name. So we must conclude that this eldest son, written "Johannes", was truly known as John.

2) In every public record I have seen that can definitely be attributed to this John — his name is never John (or Johannes) Michael or even Michael — it's always simply John. I speak particularly about the early records such as the baptisms I found in Loudoun County, Virginia for his children and the Loudoun County tax records. John is listed in these tax records for the years 1786, 1787, 1788 and 1800. I have not completed the years in between but by 1808 he is in Somerset County, PA, giving power of attorney to Peter Shover to handle the estate he was given by Elizabeth Tushtimer woman in Loudoun county. Always the name is John Younkin.

Descendants of John Younkin Enjoy 1994 Reunion

Dr. Robert "Bob" Younkin, of Houston, TX, and his wife, Claire, and niece, Barbara (Younkin) Park, of Joppa, MD.

3) Then there is the point that Joe Thomas brought up about the Michael Younkin in the 1790 Bedford County [PA] Census Record. This part of Bedford County later became Somerset County. Based on the Loudoun County Tax records, it appears that John was probably still living in Virginia in 1790 (though I haven't checked this year to be sure.) We also know that John, and his wife Catharine, sponsored the baptism of one of Rudolph's children in Loudoun county in March of 1799. I am inclined to believe that John was still in Virginia until sometime after 1800. And that he is not the Michael Younkin in the 1790 Census of Bedford County.

So who was this Bedford County Michael Younkin? I am not sure, but I believe he may be the Michael Younkin that is mentioned as the husband of Barbara Cocher in her father's estate. Michael Cocher's estate record was summarized in the August 1976 edition of the Laurel Messenger, published by the Somerset County Historical and Genealogical Society:

"No. 3 — Michael Cocher of Quemahoning Twp. Admr's bond filed May 5, 1808. Admr. Philip Cocher. Witnesses, James Walker, Alexander Ogle and Jacob Schneider. Petition for partition and valuation of 100 acres of land, mentions widow, Catherine and issue eight children. Philip, Catherine m Valentine Stine, Barbara m Michael Younkin, Polly m David Barnhart, Elizabeth m Jacob Faith, Christiana m Jacob Lohr, Susanna m George Edmund. Only seven mentioned.

In exploring this Michael and Barbara, it appears that they may be part of the Younking of Western Pennsylvania I have not found any further record in Somerset County (or Bedford) for a Michael Younkin. In trying to establish an approximate age for this Michael and Barbara we'll have to do some calculated guesswork. All of Michael Cocher's children appear to be of legal age, so let's assume that it took twenty years to bear all these children (with children born every two years, this is reasonable), and assume the youngest is just 20 (though is probably older). The 1808 year of Mr. Cocher's death minus 40 years equals children born between 1768-1788. For the sake of argument, let's assume that the 1790 census Michael is Barbara's husband — that means that Barbara and Michael were born at least 20 years before the census, say about 1770 (even if they were newlyweds in 1790). The only other substantial record I have for any "Michael and Barbara" is the following baptism at the First Lutheran Church of Greensburg in Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania:

Parents — Michael & Barbara Youngkins

Child — Samuel Youngkins

born 11 March 1809

baptized 27 August 1823

The other early Younking in this western Pennsylvania area are:

Michael Younkings — b either 1788 or 4 Oct 1790 in Westmoreland county, resided near Tarentum. He married Mary Locke.

William Younkings — b 1800 in Westmoreland county, and lived in Athens and Franklin counties, Ohio. He married Mary Spiker.

Jacob Younkings — b 1808 in Westmoreland county, and died there. He married Elizabeth "Nancy" Frederick — His children married into the Bare (also spelled: Beare and Bair) family. In a published biography of his son Jacob B. Younkings in the History of Indiana County it states he is "of German descent, his grandparents having been natives of Germany. On coming to this country they settled in the neighborhood of Easton, Pennsylvania." [On the vendue list from Jacob's estate file one of the purchasers was a George BOLLINGER. *]

Samuel Younkings — b 1809 (his baptism listed above), m (1) Mary, (2) Susannah Frederick. His will written in 1890 shows witnesses: W. C. Frederick and Henry Bair. (These surnames tie into the Jacob Younkings family above. Samuel's second wife, Susannah, was living with W. C. Frederick in 1900 census and was listed as his sister; Jacob's son, Daniel, married Martha "Mattie" Bare, daughter of a Henry Bare.)

Family History: A Dictionary of Terms

The Humorous Side of Genealogy...

Donna's genealogical pursuits can get complicated, and many times she uses terms that she assumes everyone will understand immediately. Well, it's just not the case, Donna. Not everyone eats, sleeps, and lives genealogy like you do! So, to help us "regular folks" with this sometimes confusing subject, I've started a dictionary of family history terms. I hope it helps you understand Donna (although I've been living with her for 25+ years, and I still have problems from time to time).

ancestor (an' ses-ter), n. [from the Latin antecessor, one who went before, through no choice of their own]. 1. any person, or sub-species, from whom one is descended; forebear (and many times, foreboar). 2. an early type of animal from which later kinds have evolved, especially when in-law evolution is involved. 3. in law, the person from whom an estate is inherited (extremely rare: there is seldom any money in the family). 4. a former person, generally boxed and stored under a tombstone or grave marker.

ancestral (an' ses-trel) adj. 1. of or inherited from an ancestor. 2) generally relating to old stuff and junk that no one has the heart to throw away or give to Goodwill.

aunt (ant) n. 1. the sister of one's mom or dad. 2. the lady who wears old fashioned clothes, but usually has candy or cookies for the kids. 3. the woman who fights with the uncle.

birthmark (burth'mark) n. 1. a handy blemish that is helpful in keeping babies from getting mixed up at the hospital.

cousin (kuz'n) n. [from the Old French cosine, cussin, but changed to keep relatives from confusing with math terms or swearing]. 1. someone more distant than a brother or sister, descended from a common ancestor (yes, some of your ancestors are "common"). 2. the son or daughter of one's aunt or uncle (or both!). 3. a blood-relative who knows you well enough to borrow money, but is distant enough not to pay you back. 4. those kids who always got more Christmas presents than you did.

descendant (di-sen'dant) n. 1. a person who is an offspring, however remote, of a certain family or ancestor. 2. hence, anybody and everybody. 3. those rotten kids!

decendent (matters not) n. 1. misspelling of descendant.

family (fam'il-lee) n. [from the Latin familia, servants in a household (no kidding ... look it up!)] 1. all the people living in the same house. 2. the wife, the husband, the kids, the grandparents, and anyone else who sneaks in. 3. those weird people who you don't want to introduce to your friends. 4. in biology, a subdivision ranking above a genus and below an order. 5. in your family, a group of odd individuals ranking well below genius, but with no order whatsoever. 6. all the people who come to you when they are in trouble. 7. the "stuff" of reunions.

genealogy (je'ni-al-o-ji) n. (from the Greek genealogia < genea, race, stock, black sheep + logos, discourse, to talk behind a relative's back). 1. the science or study of family descent. 2. an insidious disease, that starts out as a harmless hobby, and has no known cure. 3. Donna's excuse for why she didn't get anything else done.

generation (jen'air-ra-shan) n. 1. the act or process of producing offspring. 2. the period of time (30 years or so) between the birth of one generation and another. 3. that group - younger than you are - who don't know what they're doing, or that entire group older than you are who know so much less than you do.

grandparents (gran' par-ents) n. 1. the people who are responsible for why your mom and dad act so goofy. 2. those wonderful individuals who will still watch your kids, even when all the baby-sitters in the neighborhood refuse to. 3. spoilers. 4. Grampy and Nanny! 5. older individuals in society who have raised a family, and have acquired the wisdom not to have any more children.

FRANK & ERNEST® by Bob Thaves

John Younkin — b 1797, in the 1850 census of Allegheny, Westmoreland county, there were: wife, Ellen b 1797, and children: William, Ephraim, Anna Mary, John, and Ellen.

Henry H. Younkins — see starred  item below.

In various census records these Westmoreland county families and their descendants were living around each other, and in many cases right next door.

* Now I will digress a bit and take you back to Henrich Junghen's brother, Herman. His will gives a son, George Younkin. In Herman's will, written 1788, this son George was given a provisional legacy if (at some point in the future) he had heirs. So any children he had would have to have been born after 1788. Anita Eyster in her many writings on the Junghen family said he married Elizabeth BOLLINGER and that they lived in Chillisquaque twp, Northumberland co, Pa. George Younkin appears in the Northumberland County census records through 1840. He apparently died before 1850, for in that census year Elizabeth is listed as living by herself. [What I found interesting about this census record is the surnames of the people living around Elizabeth — FREDERICK and GEORGE. Keep in mind that Henry Youngkin Jr.'s son, Aaron, married Mary Polly GEORGE, who was born in 1820 in Monroe co, Pennsylvania, according to her death certificate. And remember the above Samuel Younkins who married Susannah Frederick. This could be just coincidental]

No children have ever been attributed to George and Elizabeth (Bollinger) Younkin that I am aware of. I believe it is entirely possible that the Younkins of Lycoming county, just northeast of Chillisquaque, are related to this George and Elizabeth. It is also possible that some of the Westmoreland County group may also be linked here.

 The Westmoreland County Younkins were also associated with the Bowser and Claypoole families through various marriages. There is a will for a James Claypoole dated 1818 in Muskingum county, Ohio, which was witnessed by a man named "Henry H. Younkins." In order to legally sign this document, Henry had to have been at least 21 years of age. Which means he was born before 1797.

Now, Rudolph had a son Henry born about 1795. This Henry married Sarah BARTLETT on 15 Feb 1821 in Muskingum County, Ohio. He also purchased land with his brother John Younkin in Muskingum county, Ohio in 1819. This places our Henry in the right county at about the right time to have been the Henry who signed this Claypoole will.

Now to add more fuel to this already out-of-control fire — don't forget our John Younkin who married Catherine Killicher. (The one I have previously written about and who

I believe is another brother to Henrich and Herman.) The only records we have on them are:

- married in the Blue Mountain Church (now Zion) Strausstown, Pa., Pennsylvania Vital Records, vol. 1: "Johann JUNGHEN and Catharina KILICHER were entered under the marriage date of 23 Jan 1759"; St. Pauls Evangelical Lutheran Church records, Lehigh Co., PA. 1750-1764.
- their son, George, born 1766 (Eyster's article).

What happened to this family! And were there any children born between 1759 and 1766? Could they have been the parents of the Michael Younkin listed in the 1790 census of Bedford County?

Obviously, we still have our work cut out for us on the first couple generations of our family in America. I hope that you will all give this some thought and check any of the records you might have in these areas and pass them along to me.

Herman Youngken Estate File
